

General News.

The best thing that one can sometime say is nothing.—Ex.

H. E. Mann and Wm. Lovelace made Albany a visit Sunday.

Miss Patricks visited friends in Portland Saturday and Sunday.

Several new lawn mowers have arrived and are at work on the lawns.

Miss Claudia Childers, of Salem, made Chemawa a short visit Wednesday.

Several hundred flower plants were set out in the different flower gardens this week.

Henderson now has a full fresh line of lunch goods. Why not patronize him? He sells just as cheap as elsewhere.

The Chemawa band gave a concert at the insane asylum Wednesday afternoon, and at Salem in the evening.

The harness makers received an order for two sets of heavy harness this week from Phelix Auduette, of Eastern Oregon.

A few more fine showers like those we have enjoyed this week and Chemawa's lawn will be a thing of beauty and a joy for ever.

Spa's Ice Cream Parlors have been entirely remodeled and fitted up in a handsome manner and he is now better prepared than ever to handle the large summer trade. Call on him.

While Mr. Godwin was blasting Thursday morning, a large root came flying (without wings) through the air and politely struck Mr. Stoudenmeyer's cottage on the south roof, breaking a hole in the roof large enough to crawl through. No further damage was done.

Mr. Cooper's detail has been busy the past week making an athletic ground by McBride hall for the girls. There will be room enough on the grounds for several sets of croquet, tennis and basket ball courts. The grounds are now nearly completed and within a few days will be marked off and divided up for the games.

Among the Pupils.

Catherine McDonald is quite a violinist. We are all glad to see Sadie Davis out of the hospital.

Delia Clark will make a good gardener after awhile.

Ask Evaline McCoy the best way to smash clods.

Miss Alice Ben is getting along nicely in her music.

Lottie Lane is giving some of the girls music lessons.

Violet Dupuis is one of the best ironers in the laundry.

Edward Warbus and Thomas Otto went to work Tuesday.

The McBride girls are busy sewing carpet rags every day.

The fence around the industrial building was painted green.

Edward Green went out in the country to work last Monday.

Thos. McCully is making a chain out of 3-8 inch iron for the State fair.

Lizzie Kanem is working in the hospital kitchen and is doing very nicely.

Mr. Potter has promised a prize to the pupil who makes the best garden.

Frances LaDue is working in the dining hall, and she is proud of her nice white dish-towels.

This quarter dining hall girls are all fast and neat workers and Mrs. Becker is very proud of them.

Mr. Potter spent a few days in Portland last week, and we were all glad to see him back to Chemawa.

Some of the Catholic girls went to Salem last Sunday to attend church. They enjoyed the trip very much.

Mattie LaChapelle is working in the domestic science room this week and is learning to cook very nicely.

Minnie Hickman is learning her music very fast. If she stays with it she will be a fine musician before long.