

President is Coming.

The President will pass through Chemawa next Thursday at noon. We will give full account next week.

Additional Locals

Mr. Godwin will take charge of the poultry department vice Mr. Overman, resigned.

Work on the new cement walk in front of the office was started Thursday afternoon.

A number of of Chemawa people took advantage of the excursion rate to Garvis today to witness the ball game.

The dog and poney show in Salem was an attraction for several of the employes and pupils Thursday.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Campbell writes from the bedside of her son Donald that he is improving and unless something unforeseen happens he will soon be able to leave the hospital.

The Band.

The Chemawa Indian Band gave a concert last Wednesday at 3 P. M. in the Chapel of the Asylum near Salem. The hall was filled with patients on the lower floor, and the gallery with employes and visitors. It was pronounced a grand success by all. Supt Calbrath came upon the stage and thanked Mr. Stoudenmyer and his boys, and said Chemawa certainly should be proud of such a fine band.

The band then went to Salem and at 7 o'clock P. M. appeared for a short concert in front of the Hotel Willamette. After that the Republicans fell in behind the band and all proceeded to the Salem Armory, where the band rendered a short concert to the satisfaction of the entire audience.

Don't fail to read our advertising columns. Some of the most reliable firms in Salem are soliciting your trade and should receive it.

Pupil Items.

Nettie Hoffer is working in the domestic science class this week. We hope that she will soon be an expert cook.

Mr. Godwin and his boys are blasting a lot of stumps on the north side of the barn, and are doing a good job.

Wanted, a boy to hold a parasol over Maud Stoddard while she works in her garden. None but hustlers need apply.

Mr. Wilson, Chemawa's noted photographer, went out riding Monday evening, and the Presdillas were disappointed.

Joseph James is taking lessons from Wm. Solomon in developing pictures and all about the kodak work. He is learning very fast.

Frank Sorahan was out in the country working but he got back last Sunday and is now working on the large boys' new building.

Girls and boys who use their eyes know that plants eat, drink, breathe and move, but have they ever caught plants napping in their beds?

Mary Juhrs and Helen Johnson are very fine singers. I believe if they would take vocal lessons they would be the finest singers at Chemawa.

Sebastain Lachester has one of the neatest beds in the garden. His work in the shop is good too. Boys of that kind are Chemawa's best advertisements.

Look out for the big boom! We have a lot of holes bored under stumps already to place blasting powder, and you will soon have to look skyward to see them.

Mr. Cooper is doing fine work on the lawn flower beds, but we must remember not to pick the flowers until the right season, so we will not spoil the appearance of the beds.

Theresa Young is a neat little sewer and can make button holes just as well as a big girl can and probably better. She works in the boys patch room and is only nine years old.
