

Local News.

Victor Demason was a visitor to Chemawa on Wednesday.

Mrs. French and Mr. Wilson talked in Chapel this week.

Mr. Campbell and Fredined with Miss Bowman on Sunday.

The vegetables are coming up very fast in the boy's and girls' gardens.

Mrs. Sarah Radcliffe of Shasta county, California, is visiting her children here.

Commencement will soon be here after which we will soon begin to scatter for vacation.

Mrs. Campbell and her son Donald received a hearty welcome home by all Chemawa Monday evening. Donald is fast recovering his health.

I have a large stock of new and second-hand Screen Doors which will go at a low price. Also a lot of second-hand one horse Orchard Plows at J. N. Shantz, 107 Court St., Salem, Ore.

We members of the choir are very glad to see the bright and happy, smiling face of Mrs. W. P. Campbell back once more after her long visit in San Francisco. We hope to have good practising for commencement.

It is pleasant to see every thing looking so nice and green here in Chemawa. The grounds here will take any visitors eye. We ought to be satisfied to be living here in Chemawa and to see everything so green and beautiful.

Miss Hutchinson is in receipt of a handsome pin, presented by the Acme Business college of Seattle, of which she is a graduate. It has engraved upon it that majestic mountain of which all Washington is so proud—Mt. Tacoma.

Chief Clerk Woodin made a raid on the finny tribes at the lake last Tuesday afternoon, but they were evidently warned of his approach as he declares there wasn't a fish in sight, and he did not even have a fish story to bring home.

The well diggers had drilled 80 feet up to Wednesday evening, leaving 40 feet yet to be drilled.

Miss Huffman was sworn in last Monday as assistant manager of the Mass. Cafe for June. Miss Patrick, who filled this exulted position during May, acquitted herself in an able manner and the members are all in splendid condition.

Mr. Wilson and his lawn mower may be seen around the school building at all hours. Surely a well directed effort has its own reward. The grounds present a beautiful appearance. The flowers are blooming profusely all around the building.

Maggie Dowdle, who was recently detailed as sergeant at small girls' home is setting an example that all other sergeants would do well to follow. Although in charge only a short time she already has the best drilled and most orderly line in school.

The dairy report for last quarter shows that 4019 gallons of milk were supplied; calves born 7; number of cows milked 19. Mr. Godwin says the quantity of milk will reach about 6,000 gallons for this quarter owing to green feed which the cows are now able to get.

Work on the sidewalks were delayed a few days on account of Mr. Hydock's absence in Salem where he was called to look after work on the postoffice walk in that city, which he has under construction. Considerable extension is yet to be made on our walks. All board walks will be replaced by cement and new ones laid out.

Modocs Still Long for Oregon.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—An Indian inspector has been ordered to Quapaw Indian Agency, in Indian Territory, to investigate the dissatisfaction of the Modoc Indian who have expressed a desire to return to their old home in the Klamath reservation, in Oregon. He will endeavor to persuade the malcontents to postpone their departure until Congress can provide for them.