

Among the Pupils.

The McBride hall girls are going to drill every evening.

Guy Howard says California is too warm to agree with him.

The sewing room girls are making waists for the small boys.

We are glad to see Andrew Picard back with the band again.

Susie Siegel made a lovely hem-stitched shirt waist for Miss O'Here.

Mable McKay is working in the dining hall and always has her tables shining.

Rosa Brignone is working in the cooking class. She will be a good cook some day.

Addie Cameron is sick in the hospital. We hope she will soon be able to go to school again.

We are glad to have Mrs. Campbell back for teacher although we miss little Irene very much.

Rosa Brignone now runs the body ironer in the laundry. This is quite a difficult task and requires experience.

Floy Evans helped Irene Campbell get ready to welcome Mrs. Campbell. The home looked spick and span.

May Stamp arrived here last Sunday at 11 o'clock A. M. The girls and boys who knew her at Puyallup school were delighted to see her.

Two large bull snakes were seen near the gravel pit Tuesday morning. The boys killed one. Joe LaRose has the skin and intends to make something pretty of it.

Roses are blooming profusely around on the grounds, and many of the gentlemen are wearing very handsome buds on the lapels of their coats but only one gentleman is favored with a carination for his.

Friday morning while a few of the boys were sawing wood Guy Howard one of the boys who was assisting them, was trying to take some chips out of the saw while it was running and got his finger caught in the saw and had it about sawed off.

We are all glad vacation is near.

All the girls are proud of their new dresses.

Violet Edwards is going to take music lessons this year.

The gardeners will be at work in the field planting cabbage.

The Chemawa grounds are improving very fast with new walks.

Mrs. Sherrard has been sick but is on duty this week again.

Mary Decker and Mabel McKay are very faithful dining-hall girls.

Lena Charles is proud of her dish towels and so is Margery Hickman.

Louisa Herman is floor girl at McBride Hall. She keeps it very clean.

The brick masons are nearly through with their part of the Mitchell Hall.

Jones Shelton has quit gardening and is now a sweeper in the school house.

The pupils of the eighth grade are allowed to see Blanche Davis in their room.

The gardeners are now beginning to plant potatoes down at the lake for winter use.

Clara DePoe is the only small girl on the floor detail but she keeps it very neat.

Richard Harris, one of the carpenters, is busy making skirt boxes for McBride Hall.

The fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades were all making gardens Thursday.

Floyd Hayden is working in the Campbell, watering roses; he is doing good work now.

Rosa Brignone is working in the domestic science class this week. She is busy in making cookies and doughnuts.

Joseph Carrasco says that it is much better to work at the large boys home than to work at the small boys home.

We are glad to see Emma Williams back in school again after being confined in hospital for a week on account of illness.

The boys who go to the hospital for treatment are always on time. When the bell blows they form a line and march to the hospital, and as soon as the doctor is through with them they form a line and march back to their own building.
