

General News.

F. A. Erixson was a Chemawa visitor one day this week.

Mrs. W. P. Campbell visited Salem friends last Monday.

Many of the employes and pupils spent their Fourth in Salem.

Mrs. Woods has been appointed housekeeper at the hospital.

Wm. Blodget and Harry Lemaister are making a suit for Mr. Erixson.

Miss Hubbard, of Salem, was a guest of Miss Woodwin on Wednesday.

Miss Patrick is in charge of the all boys' home during Miss McFadden's absence.

About 12 acres have been slashed in the southeast part of the grounds and will be used for pasture.

The hospital kitchen force have been busy canning fruit this week for the sick and needy during the winter.

W. W. Zinn makes his own ice cream and candies and consequently his goods are always fresh. Don't fail to call on him when in Salem.

During the last quarter the dairy furnished over 6057 gallons of milk. The average number of cows milked during that time was 21.

Mrs. A. Savage and daughter Miss Maud have taken charge of the culinary department of the Mess Cafe and are giving entire satisfaction to all.

The weather of the past two weeks has been delightful. The thermometer has been registering about from 65 to 76, with a refreshing breeze every afternoon.

The Great Western Railway Company claims to have made a world's record for its train Tuesday. The train ran from London to Plymouth, a distance of 246 miles, in 233½ minutes.

Alex. Young, who for sometime past has held the position of assistant cook for the school, left last week for his home in California. Mrs. A. H. Williams has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

One hundred and fifty Indian boys and girls have gone out to work under the "outing system," from Sherman Institute, Riverside, Calif.—Ex.

A new institution, named the Hiawatha Asylum, has been erected near Canton, S. D., and is a home for unfortunate Indians who are feeble minded or insane. A first class physician is in charge, assisted by a number of attendants.

The baseball game at The Dalles on the Fourth between Chemawa and Wasco resulted in a score of 3 to 0 in favor of Chemawa. It is said to have been one of the best games ever witnessed on The Dalles diamond.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bensell, of Siletz Agency, spent the first ten days of the month in Chemawa, returning to their home Monday morning. They were both students of this school at one time. Mrs. Bensell now holds the position of seamstress at Siletz.

Spa's Ice Cream Parlor are becoming more popular every day. His ice cream has a delicious flavor that no other possesses, and to patronize this popular place once is to become a steady customer. He carries a large, select stock of candies fresh from his own factory. You are cordially invited to call when in Salem.

M. R. Decker, of Eureka, Cal., who has been spending a few days at Chemawa left Monday morning for home accompanied by his two sisters, Mary and Martha, who will remain home until school opens in the fall. Mr. Decker is a former student of Chemawa, being at one time a member of the football team.

Samuel F. Owens, Supervisor of Construction, arrived at Chemawa Monday evening, July 13, to supervise the construction of Mitchell Hall. Mr. Owens is not at all averse to outdoor sports and occasionally finds time in the evenings to indulge in a game of tennis. Although it has been several years (we won't say how many for it may reflect upon his age) since he last yielded a racket, he has not yet forgotten the tricks of the game.