

General News Items.

The Institute convenes August 17.

Wm. Arquette is in the paint detail and is a good workman.

Louise Sullivan has gone to Roseburg to work in the family of E. L. Parrott.

Mr. Williams is taking a couple of weeks outing on his brother's farm near Oregon City.

Mrs. Cloutier returned Thursday evening from Seattle and reports having had a pleasant time.

Miss Florence Hutchinson left Friday morning for her home in Seattle, where she will spend her vacation.

Miss Florence Biggers, of Portland, spent a few days with her friend, Miss Irene Campbell, this week.

Mr. Wilson is spending the week at the metropolis, and may also take a trip up in Washington before his return.

Harry Lemaister left Monday, July 20, for Tacoma, Wash., where he will work for his brother until school opens.

The halftone picture of Newport, which appears in this issue was very kindly loaned to us by the Yaquina News, of Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Becker left on the north bound train Monday morning for Seattle to spend the next thirty days with friends and relatives.

Hon. Blinger Herman writes from Roseburg that Della Clark, who is living with his family, is successful in every way.

Miss Lucy Pomeroy, of Sterling, Mass., is a good friend to the Indian race and writes for information concerning our school here.

Sam Morris, Chemawa's crack pitcher, is covering himself with glory these days. His picture has appeared several times in the Portland papers and writeups appear daily. The Portland league team has made him a very tempting offer.

Mr. D. Smith, engineer at the Carson Indian school, Nev., was a Chemawa visitor last Friday morning. Mr. Smith, in company with his wife, is spending his vacation at Salem and Ashland.

Messrs. W. P. Campbell, S. F. Owens and Donald Campbell spent a few days camping at Silver Falls the latter part of last week. They report that the fishing is very poor there this year.

The Woodmen ball team, of Portland, was defeated by the Gervais team at Gervais on July 19th; score 10 to 11. Albert Meacum was catcher and Merl Poland pitcher for the Gervais team.

Mrs. Sherrard left on the south bound overland Tuesday, July 28, for Southern California, her former home, and will enjoy life for the next thirty days among the palms and orange groves of the sunny south.

Frank Beale is at present canvassing for the L. B. Price Mercantile Co., of Kansas City, Mo. He expects to enter the State University of Nebraska in the fall and take up the study of law. Frank's friends wish him success.

The painters have just completed Mr. Campbell's bedroom and dining room. Bed room was kalsomined in two tints. Dining room papered with beautiful red paper, and woodwork painted colonial yellow. The room has a very cheerful appearance and seems to make all smile.

A camping party, composed of Miss Hubbard of Salem, Miss French, Miss Woodin, and Messrs Woodin, Overman and Hilb left last week for Trout Lake for a two week's outing. Word was received first of the week that the party already had one bear and a deer and a multitude of fishes to their credit and were enjoying life immensely.

So great has been the demand for pupils to work out this summer that the school has been utterly unable to fill the applications, although several hundred pupils have accepted positions. The most encouraging feature is that many who have visited the school and gone through the different departments are the most solicitous for their services, and many have applied in person.