

PROGRAMME.

Following is the program for the Pacific Coast Institute, which will meet at Newport, Oregon, on August 17th and remain in session until August 23rd:

SATURDAY, AUGUST 17, 8 P. M.

Prayer.

Music - - - - - Chemawa Indian School Band

Addresses of Welcome:—

- Hon. George E. Chamberlain, Governor of Oregon.
- Hon. J. H. Ackerman, State Superintendent of Public Instruction.
- Hon. George W. Vethers, Superintendent Schools, Lincoln County, Oregon.
- Hon. George F. Sylvester, Mayor of Newport.
- Hon. Edwin Stone, General Manager of C. & E. R. R.
- Hon. Claude Gatch, Salem, Oregon.
- Prof. J. B. Horner, State Agricultural College, Corvallis, Oregon.
- Supt. John J. McKoin, Siletz, Oregon.
- Supt. Andrew Kershaw, Grande Ronde, Oregon.
- Dr. T. L. Eliot, Portland, Oregon.
- Col. E. Hofer, Salem, Oregon.

Music by Chemawa Indian School Band.

Responses:—

- Miss Estelle Reel, Superintendent Indian Schools, Washington, D. C.
- Mr. Edwin L. Chalcraft, Supervisor of Indian Schools.
- Mr. Chas. W. Goodman, Superintendent Phoenix Indian School, Arizona.
- Mr. Thos. W. Potter, Superintendent Salem Indian School, Oregon.
- Dr. Chas. M. Buchanan, Superintendent Tulalip, Wash.
- Miss M. Burgess, Carlisle, Penn.
- E. T. McArthur, Superintendent, Fort Lapwai, Idaho.

Music by Chemawa Indian Band.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 18, 9 A. M.

Prayer.

Music by the Chemawa Indian School Band.

1. "The Institute: Its past faults; its present needs, and its future development."
—ALLEN A. BARTOW, Port Madison, Wash.
  2. "How can teachers in the Indian work keep in touch with similar lines of work outside of the Service?"—ALICE P. PREUSS, Prin. Teacher, Fort Lapwai, Idaho.
  3. "Cook Stove vs. The Piano,"—W. H. EMBREE, Western Shoshoni, Nevada.
  4. "Commendable Indian Ideals."—D. W. CROUSE, Agent Fort Apache, White River, Arizona.
  5. Paper—T. W. POTTER, Superintendent, Chemawa, Oregon.
  6. "The Matron of the Indian Service."—MRS. DELOSS, Siletz, Oregon.
  7. Fundamental and essential principles of Hygiene and Sanitation. How applied and how to be applied in schools.—DR. CHAS. M. BUCHANAN, Superintendent, Tulalip, Wash.
  8. "Landscape Gardening in Indian Schools."—M. W. COOPER, Chemawa, Oregon.
- Subjects to be discussed by the Institute (20 minutes discussion):
1. How can the inherent extravagance and prodigality of the Indian be best combated?