

Local and General.

Mr. Westley will begin drying prunes Monday.

Miss Patrick spent last week visiting Portland friends.

Miss Hutchinson returned from Seattle Monday morning.

Mr. Wilson went to Portland Tuesday to have his eyes treated.

S. F. Owen and A. H. Williams visited the metropolis one day this week.

Mount Hood seems to be but a few steps away on these bright clear days.

Mrs. Williams went to Salem on Wednesday to visit her mother, who is ill.

We hear that Eugene Geffe has joined the navy and is playing in the Marine Band at Bremerton.

Ethel Parrish returned Monday from Eureka, Cal., where she had been spending her vacation.

Miss Burgess, of Carlisle, the Man-on-the-band-stand's Chief Clerk, visited Mr. and Mrs. Campbell for a few days.

We are pleased to state that Mrs. Theisz, who has been afflicted with rheumatism during the past week, is improving.

Hop picking began this week. The recent rains have damaged the crop to some extent, but the loss will not be great.

Our many friends express surprise at the difference in the appearance of the grounds at present compared with last year.

Mr. Donald K. Seibert, of San Francisco, has been spending the summer with his chum, Donald Campbell. Mr. Seibert, is a student of Stanford University.

Miss Noble, of Carlisle, is again visiting the Campbell family. She thinks that Chemawa is the finest school in the service and Oregon the finest State.

George Craue, a bright boy from Klamath Agency, arrived last week and has entered school. George is much pleased with Chemawa and will undoubtedly make a good record for himself while here.

Lena Kirk returned last week from Klamath Agency where she has been spending her vacation.

Frank Decker is working on the thresher. He informs us that the machine will be at Chemawa about Saturday or Monday.

A number of the boys started hop-picking Wednesday morning. Tracey Hatch is chief cook and bottle washer for one of the camps.

H. N. Stoudenmeyer returned Monday evening with the band. The boys all report a pleasant time, but are none the less glad to get back to old Chemawa.

Mr. Henderson has a few words to say in his ad on last page. He is very desirous of obtaining at least a share of Chemawa's trade, which he is certainly entitled to.

The new bicycle ordinance recently passed by the Salem council forbids riding on sidewalks and leaning wheels against buildings, but permits riding without lights at night.

We learn through a private letter from Johnny Stacey, that he is living in California, and is much pleased with the climate and country in general. He expects to return this fall.

Mrs. Sherrard returned Friday evening from California. She was accompanied as far as Portland by her daughter, Miss Lucile, who will spend the winter at Vanconyer, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Becker arrived home on the evening train Tuesday from Seattle and other Sound points. They say they have had a delightful trip, but are glad to get back to Chemawa again.

Spa's Ice Cream and Confectionery Parlor is one of the busiest places in Salem. His ice cream becomes more popular each day, as does also his candies, which are always fresh and a large assortment to choose from.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Mann and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Godwin returned last week from a two weeks camping trip at the mouth of the Yachots river. They report having had a splendid time. Although hunting but one day they got two deer. Fish, rock crabs and clams were in abundance.