

Local Happenings.

Mrs. Theisz visited Salem Wednesday.

Margie Hickman returned to school last week.

The floor girls of McBride Hall are now sewing carpet rags.

Mr. Wilson went to Portland first of the week to consult an optician.

The girls that play in the basket-ball team are now practising hard every day.

Miss Eva Woods has returned to her studies at the Sacred Heart School in Salem.

Dollie Wiggins's many friends will be glad to hear that she is rapidly recovering from her recent illness.

Miss Lucile Sherrard is up from Vancouver making her mother a very pleasant visit for a few days.

Miss Winnie Stoddard who spent her vacation at Hammond, Ore., returned last week and is working in the sewing room.

Manuel Robles is able to be around on crutches. We hope soon to see him entirely rid of the effects of his recent accident.

Albany College second team will play Chemawa second team November 7th. It is not yet decided where the game will be played.

The second team will play the Reform school tomorrow (Saturday) on the Reform school grounds.

All arrangements have been made for a game of football between Mt. Angel's first team and Chemawa's second, to be played at Gervais.

Ethel Parrish has been promoted from the sixth to the seventh grade. Ethel is a bright little student and is determined to be at the head.

When we have no opening services in the chapel Mrs. Campbell's grade have singing in their school for a few minutes. She says the girls sing very well.

Louisa Murray has been assigned as waitress at the mess. She is a bright little girl and gives good satisfaction.

Mrs. Newcomb, formerly matron at the Hoopa Valley School, Oal., has been appointed housekeeper at the hospital and reported for duty Thursday morning.

Why don't the Chemawa boys and girls all subscribe for the AMERICAN? It is pretty mean to borrow a newspaper that doesn't cost quite a half cent a week.

The band returned from Pendleton on the 10:20 train Monday night and treated the school to a serenade. The music sounded lovely in the clear, cool moonlight.

Yeppe Nelson stepped in the other day and ordered the American sent to five of his friends. That's the proper spirit, Yeppe, let your friends know what we are doing at Chemawa.

Mr. Edward Armstrong, of Juneau, Alaska, made Chemawa a pleasant call one day this week and incidentally dropped in at the AMERICAN office and added his name to our subscription list. Mr. Armstrong will attend Vashon College this winter.

Miss Blanche Charnley, of Appleton, Wis., who has been visiting friends and relatives in Seattle and Portland during the summer, is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Becker. Miss Charnley is much pleased with Oregon and has decided to make her future home in Portland.

Harry L. Beard, who for the past seven months has been a trusted employe of the school and member of the band, left Wednesday for the Reform school, where he has accepted a position as teacher, and will also take charge of the band at that institution. Mr. Beard has made many warm friends during his stay at Chemawa who regret to have him leave and wish him every success. Mr. John Steelhammer of Salem will take Mr. Beard's place. While we are loath to lose Mr. Beard we extend no less hearty welcome to Mr. Steelhammer, our incoming chief of police.
