

News of The Week.

Electric lights will soon be installed in the commissary.

Miss Cuadia Childers was a guest of Miss French last Saturday.

The painters began, Friday afternoon, painting the roof of Mitchell Hall.

Superintendent Potter and Col. Owen spent a few days at Siletz this week.

The clear, warm weather of the past few days has started the grass to growing.

Don't be guilty of borrowing a paper that will cost you less than a half cent per week.

Mr. and Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Mann were Salem visitors last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Becker entertained a few of their friends very pleasantly one evening this week.

In the football game between Carlisle and Princeton on the 17th inst., Princeton won by a score of 11 to 0.

Miss Bertha H. Hubbard, Salem's accomplished musician, was a Chemawa visitor last Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Missamore, teacher in the Salem public schools, spent last Saturday afternoon visiting Miss Patrick, at Chemawa.

Mr. W. A. Harvey, of Denver, Colo., arrived at Chemawa Tuesday and spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. M. V. Cooper.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Godwin left with the football team Wednesday morning for California. Mr. Godwin is manager of the team.

The plumbers finished work on Mr. Henderson's new building Friday morning and the painters have nearly finished their work.

Mr. Matthers, Editor of the Newport News, Mrs. Tillson of San Francisco, and the Misses Tillson of Salem, visited Chemawa Thursday evening.

Mr. N. S. Nelson, Chilocco's new musical director, arrived from Genoa this month with his family. They are in one of the new cottages.—Chilocco Farmer.

Some of the new members of the World's Fair Band are: Gus. A. Breuninger, clarinet; Geo. W. Moore, clarinet; A. A. Elm, cornet; Andreas Moya, cornet; Mike Jury, cornet.—Chilocco Farmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell started for California Wednesday evening to be present during the big games to be played between Chemawa and the teams of Stanford and Berkeley and to collect new pupils in Northern California.

Mrs. Robt. Mullenger, of Belle Fourche, S. D., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Sherrard. After spending a few weeks at Chemawa, Mrs. Mullenger will go to California to spend the winter.

Mrs. Sherrard accompanied her little daughter Lucile to her home in Vancouver last Friday and met her mother, Mrs. Mullenger, in Portland and returned with her to Chemawa on the evening train.

The employees of the Genoa School, Nebraska, have organized a club. At least one evening in each month will be set aside for a good social time, while three other evenings will be devoted to reading papers and discussing the general school work.

Superintendent Potter and Col. S. F. Owen returned Wednesday evening after spending a few days at Siletz. Mr. Potter brought six bright pupils from that school while Mr. Owen was laden with a fine selection of baskets and Indian relics, some of which were quite ancient. Both gentlemen report having had a very pleasant visit with their genial host, Supt. McKoin. A raid was made on the finny tribes in the placid waters of the Siletz river, but as neither gentleman are prone to discuss the subject, it is a sure wager that the number of fish in the stream is not diminished. On Tuesday evening a very enjoyable party was given in their honor.