

What The Pupils Say.

Roses are still blooming.

We are all happy at Chemawa.

May Evans is working for Mrs. Farrow.

Mary J. Smith is sergeant at McBride Hall.

Mattie Hallier is working in the sewing room.

May Saylor is becoming quite expert at cooking.

Tillie Nappo has been promoted from the second to the third grade.

The gardeners are working at the lake gathering and sacking onions and digging potatoes.

We learn through one of Mary Decker's brothers that she is now going to school at Phoenix, Arizona.

Loulin Brewer has returned from Tacoma, Wash., where he has been spending his summer vacation.

No one should fail to see the "Old Maids Convention," a play to be given soon by some of Chemawa's maids.

Most of the small boys have marbles and will soon be playing their favorite game in the mud. Poor Miss McFadden!

One little girl, in an item to the AMERICAN says, "We all love Miss Troutman, our new matron, she is so kind to us.

Joe Lane, one of the carpenter boys, did a neat job in putting in the glass in the private office of the printing office.

Miss La Vina DeVault, who has been in the hospital for about two months, is now out and is staying at the McBride Hall.

I suppose you wish you were at home and not learning anything, but when you grow up to be a man you will be very sorry.

Mrs. Laura Pierce and her little son are visiting Chemawa. Mrs. Pierce was a pupil here about seven years ago and finds a great change in the place.

Miss May Sylvester arrived at Chemawa Wednesday with her brother George who will enter school here.

The basket ball girls are glad to get together again. They say that they are going to work hard for the championship again this year.

Joseph Souvigner, a former pupil of this school has been ill in the hospital at Astoria for a few months but is now up and able to go back to his home.

The second football team will play Corvallis College at Corvallis next Saturday afternoon. The teams are evenly matched and an interesting game is looked for.

The Y. W. C. A. of the Chemawa Indian School reorganized Sunday evening and elected the following officers to serve during the school year: Blanche Davis, President; Irene Campbell, Vice-President; Mary J. Smith, Secretary.

Cora Richardson left on Wednesday morning's train for her home in Corvallis, California. A number of her friends were at the train to bid her farewell. Cora has made a good record for herself at Chemawa and will be missed by teachers and pupils.

The band boys are wishing for another trip, as they had a pretty good time at Pendleton, where they were engaged to play for the carnival. While there they visited the Umatilla Indian School and had a "swell" dinner and supper, which made every boy smile all over.

The Chemawa football team left Wednesday forenoon for California where they will meet Stanford and Berkeley teams within the next ten days. The team will be lined up as follows: James Smith, right end; E. D. Godwin, right tackle; Thos. Young, right guard; Sam Williams, center; Booth or Green, left guard; Joe Schilt, left tackle; Walter Dyke, left end; Silas Moon, quarter back; Arthur Bensell, right half; Eddie Davis, left half; Rube Saunders, Frank Decker or James Arquette, full back.