

What the Pupils Say.

We are all writing our items today.

The farmers are bailing hay at the lake.

The tailors are busy making winter under-clothing.

We are all glad to see Miss O'Here back to the sewing room again.

Joseph Brignone is back again at his old place in the engine room.

The extra dish-washers are trying to see who can have the neatest set of tables.

Lena Kirk, Lulu Beach and Susie Seigel have resumed their music lessons for the winter.

The "Old Maids' Convention" will be held the last of the month. Every body invited.

We all look forward to Friday night with pleasure as the sociables this year are as enjoyable as ever.

Superintendent Potter made the band hall a visit Monday night while the band was having a rehearsal.

Louise Sullivan, who has been ill, is able to be out once more, and we need not add that her friends are pleased.

Ruth Scott, Maud Hamilton, Harriett Edgar and Edith Milne are among the new arrivals at McBride Hall.

Guss Bushman, a former Chemawa pupil, is now at Athena, Ore., and writes for The AMERICAN to be sent to him.

Robert Brothers, Guy Watters, Grover Colby, Arthur Tyler and Elisha Bender have been promoted to the A. Class, Mixed Grade.

Frank Hamilton has returned from his northern home with a number of bright pupils. Franks friend's are glad to see him back.

Some of the employes wouldn't believe that the bread they had for dinner the other day was home-made bread. A compliment for Emma Williams.

The mess has adopted three kittens and owing to their vocalistic powers have christened them, "Nordica," "Mella" and "Patte."

Harry Stoddard, Robert Dundas, Rodwick Murchison, George Scott and Gideon Haubary are new members of the tailoring department.

From a letter received from Robert DePoe we learn that he is studying law in Lawrence, Kansas, and expects to finish the course in two years.

Mrs. Theisz has arranged the work in the Dining Hall so that three girls work at three tables. They wash all the dishes and arrange their own tables.

Lena Alliger is a very faithful music pupil. She will soon be able to make sweet music, if she continues practising with such patience and earnestness.

Cecil Johnson and Minnie Howard are expected back to Chemawa soon from their home in South Bend, Wash. They will bring three new pupils with them.

Frank Hamilton, Silas Milen, Donald Atkinson and Chas. Bolton called at the office Tuesday morning and subscribed for the AMERICAN for themselves and their parents.

Joshua Gibson, of the class 1901, has returned from a visit to his home. His classmates and teacher gave him a hearty welcome. He brought two new pupils with him.

Grover Colby is Miss Dohse's star pupil. When he came to school one year ago he did not know a letter, now he reads in the third reader, and works examples in division fairly well. How is that for progress!

The work in the dining hall has been re-organized and a contest is now on among the girls to have the cleanest and most orderly tables. Mrs. Theisz will give the names of the most successful ones at the end of each week.

Grover Colby is making a desk for the printing office that promises to be a very neat piece of furniture. Although Grover has been in the carpenter shop but six months, he is able to do work that a much older hand would be proud of.
