

News of The Week.

Manuel Robles is again getting around. There are some nice little singers in the third B.

We had the nine tables today in the Third B.

Leona Meservey is the new waitress at the mess.

Nora Mann has been promoted to the sixth grade.

Julian Jim is back to his old place in the wagon shop.

Mr. Wilson made a flying trip to Portland last Saturday.

The girls have been practising hard for the entertainment.

Miss Lucile Sherrard is visiting her mother at Chemawa this week.

Miss Agness Bagnell went on a short visit to Portland last Saturday.

The paint shop received some needed improvements since our last issue.

Mr. Westley and his gardeners were setting out blackberry plants Tuesday.

Miss Delia Clark, who has been working in Roseburg, has returned to Chemawa.

Eddie Mann will not eat chicken dinners. He says, "because the chicken is dead."

We are all glad to see Delia Clark back to school again and also a number of new pupils.

The football boys are again at work practising for the coming fray with Albany.

Miss Shields, the secretary of the Y. W. C. A., enlisted the Chemawa association this week.

Herbert Campbell and Joe Schilt took in the Willamette-Oregon game at Eugene last Saturday.

Dr. John Steiner, of Prince of Wales Island, Alaska, made Chemawa a visit one day last week.

Miss Dohse has purchased a fine $20 Standard dictionary for her little friend, Ethel Parrish.

Mary J. Smith is working in the printing office and the printer says she is doing nice work.

The football boys returned from the disastrous trip to California last Sunday. No one hurt.

The hospital girls are all pleased with their cook, Mrs. Newcomb. They say she is so kind and jolly.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Mr. Wollan and the Misses Tillson, of Salem, visited Chemawa last Wednesday evening.

Wade Crawford said that he is going to the dentist in town and have all of his bad teeth pulled out, and store teeth put in.

Miss Irene Campbell is giving private music lessons to some of the girls of the school and displays much ability as a teacher.

Alice Williams, who spent her vacation at home in Tacoma, Washington, has returned. Her friends are glad to see her bright face again.

Those wishing pictures of the football team will find them at Barr's Jewelry Store in Salem. They are the best that have been taken of any organization at the school.

Mrs. Cloutier and Miss Miller, with the latter's mother and sister, of Salem, had a very pleasant drive over in Polk Co. last Sunday afternoon with Levi Sortor handling the ribbons.

Isn't it nice to see it rain after so many weeks of sunshine, and how lovely it is to hear the gentle drops patter on the roof and window pane, especially when happy and comfortable inside.

Supt. John McKoin, of Siletz, stopped at Chemawa last Saturday on his way home from Portland. The Major is a most genial and courteous gentleman and has made many good friends at Chemawa. In a hotly contested game of tennis Saturday afternoon he proved himself to be an expert with the racket.