

Grocer—Well, little girl, what can I do for you this morning?

Little Girl—Mother sent me to get change for a dollar and said to tell you she would give you the dollar tomorrow.—Chicago News

Hangeron: "What's making that rasping noise in the next room?"

Bailiff: "I think its a woman filing an application for divorce."—Chicago Tribune.

Patience: I would never squeeze my feet out of shape

Patrice: Oh, yes you would, if you were in my shoes.—Ex.

That, said Willie, as he launched a heavy volume at the teacher's head, is the coming book. It's bound to make a hit.—Ex.

Why ain't you at school, little boy?
I stayed away on account of sickness, sir.

And who is sick, if I may ask?
The truant officer.—Ex.
