

PLAYED TO A STANDSTILL.

The second teams of Albany college and the Chemawa second team played each other to a standstill on the local gridiron Saturday afternoon, says an Albany press dispatch. Each team made a touchdown in the first half, but failed to kick goal or to force the pigskin over the line at any other time. Albany kicked off to the Indians, who failed to make their yardage and Albany bucked the line for good gains. Chemawa braced up and secured the ball on their two-yard line, but in attempting to punt, Serfing broke through and blocked it, falling on the ball back of the Indian's goal line. Marsters failed to kick goal. Score, 5 to 0. Albany again kicked off but held the Indians for downs. After several good bucks by Bilyeu and Barnes, Albany failed to make the necessary gains and the visitors took the pigskin. Then Sortor, Chemawa's speedy halfback, broke around the left end for 75 yards, making a touchdown. It was the most spectacular play of the day and even the local "rooters" cheered the fleet-footed ward to the echo. Hatch failed on the goal and the score was tied, 5 to 5.

During the remainder of the game the ball was in Chemawa's territory and several times Albany forced Chemawa back to their five-yard line but fumbled twice and were held once for downs. The game was well played throughout, considering the muddy condition of the field, and the collegians are well pleased with the result, as the Indians have a strong team. Dolan, Marsters, Bilyeu and Barnes were the star players for Albany, while Crook, Sorter and Hatch played a fine game for Chemawa.
