

Mr. Chas. A. Gray, one of Salem's most able business men, made Chemawa a visit Thursday, in company with his son, Geo. W. Gray.

Thos. Scott, a former pupil of Chemawa, is now engaged in business for himself at Keswick, Calif. He has a boot and shoe store, and is doing well.

Robt. Davis and George Welfelt have completed papering and painting the employes' reception room. It now presents a very "swell" appearance.

Authority has been granted for the erection of a greenhouse; and also for the purchase of a lot of shrubs and plants to be added to our already pretty campus.

The boys of Mrs. Campbell's school room are practicing a song for the next entertainment. It will be their first attempt to sing in public. Don't get frightened boys, but do your best.

On inspection Sunday morning to Mitchell Hall, the boys' rooms were found to be very neat and well arranged. The girls of McBride Hall will have to watch out or they will be outdone by the boys.

Why don't the janitor take more pains when dusting the chapel? The boys and girls, and teachers too, hate to get their nice clothes dusty when they sit down. Let the janitor see if he can't make the chapel the prettiest and most attractive room in the school building.

Jos. Teabo, Rueben Saunders and Sam Morris, three of Chemawa's illustrious baseball players, are receiving some good offers for their services during the coming season. Eugene as well as Salem, is very anxious to engage Mr. Saunders and offers a very substantial financial inducement. All three of the boys are in receipt of letters from Eastern managers who are endeavoring to engage them to play at the World's Fair at St. Louis during the summer.

A lively contest was on among three of the kitchen boys, John La Bounte, Harry Stoddard and George Doud, last Saturday afternoon. A prize was offered to the one who roasted the best pan of coffee and the result showed three well roasted pans of coffee and three poorly roasted Indian boys. John La Bounte walked off with the dish of pear butter and cream; while Harry Stoddard took second place, and George Dowd won the buby. The boys all did the work exceptionally well.

ITEMS BY THE PUPILS.

May Saylor is now working in the dining hall.

The class in Agriculture had examination Monday.

The Lummi boys all seem to like Chemawa pretty well.

Mrs. Aupperly of Jefferson was a Chemawa visitor on Monday.

Miss Irene Cempbell played at a piano recital in Salem Saturday.

Have you noticed the lovely bed of hyacinths in front of the office?

Minnie Hickman is working in the sewing room and is doing good work.

The lawns here at Chemawa look like they do in the springtime at home.

The farm boys are working hard on the farm, hauling and burning stumps.

Supt. Potter brought some very nice boys and girls to Chemawa Saturday night.

Mrs. Campbell is still encouraging her pupils to get to the sixth grade this year.

We understand that the Reliance and Nonpariel Societies are to have a joint debate.

We believe that our girls can beat any team of boys on the grounds playing basketball.

Miss Jane Evans is assistant laundress and helps Mrs. Brewer with the work quite a good bit.

The Estelle Reel paper is getting to be a fine little paper. It is a little larger each week.

Alice Williams is always glad when it is her turn in the domestic science room. I wonder why?

Lena Young has returned to school and her many friends are glad to have her back because she is a good, neat girl and we always welcome such girls.

Louisa Murray and Alice Williams work in the mess kitchen hall and are very neat workers. They seem to be always happy judging from the way they sing while at their work.

Supt. Potter gave the school a little talk last Sunday and I tell you it was interesting. We all like to hear him talk about how to make our homes cleaner and brighter and how to help in other ways.
