

The Y. M. C. A. boys had a very pleasant and profitable meeting on Sunday night after chapel.

Rosa Winslow is feeling pretty good in the school room because she gets all her spelling correctly.

Lena Young, who has been working for Mrs. Aupperte at Jefferson, returned to Chemawa on Monday.

Grover Winthorne, Allen Williams, Pio and Mitchell Nelson, who came from Umatilla, have entered the 5th grade.

Mr. James Smith is getting along very nicely in the engine room. His game football leg is about as good as new again.

Elisha Bender has been learning fast at his trade for the time he has been in the shop. He will be a first class blacksmith if he keeps on trying.

Mrs. Campbell teaches the upper grades singing on Monday and Tuesday evenings. The girls sing on Monday night and the boys on Tuesday night.

Sunday afternoon the band played and we all enjoyed their music very much, and after the band stopped playing Mr. Potter took the girls out for a walk.

The Hole-in-the-wall boys' basket ball team is practicing hard for a game in the near future with the first team.

"Last Wednesday when we were coming down the Columbia river on our way to Chemawa I saw little towns along the railroad, and men working along the river. There were also Indian tents on the river bank. When we got to Portland Mr. Campbell was there to meet us and took us to supper, after which we took the train for Chemawa," writes one of the new Umatilla boys.

The following named pupils were among the new arrivals at the school last week: From Umatilla, Oregon: Allan Williams, Michel Wilson, Harry Marshall, Walter Poe and Grover Mintorn. From Lummi, Wash.: Matilda Pearl Brown, Sara Williams, Gustina Jack, Jennie Williams, Allie Kinley, Ellen Jack, Fred Toby, Joseph Jefferson, Phillip Gardner and Damia Solomon.
