

The Salem Indian School

AT

Chemawa, Ore.,

Offers Every

YOUNG INDIAN

In the United States the best chance in the world to get a good practical business education, and also learn a useful and valuable trade. All of the best trades and industries are taught by first class Instructors. The school is one of Uncle Sam's largest Training Schools, and last year enrolled 760 pupils from Oregon, California, Washington, Idaho and Montana; and other parts of the United States.

The thirty large and commodious buildings are heated by steam and lighted by electricity. The beautiful grounds surrounding the buildings are dotted with lovely trees, and beds of flowers that bloom all the year. Cement walks wind to and fro connecting the various buildings and departments.

The Southern Pacific R. R. trains running between Portland and San Francisco stop at the school for convenience of pupils, employes and visitors.

If you want to go to school, get an education, learn a trade and become a useful man or woman, capable of going out in the world, making money and building a good home for yourselves, come to Chemawa, and do your best. DON'T Wait until next year. Write the Superintendent, at Chemawa, Oregon, for catalogue and application blanks at once.

The Northern Pacific

WONDERLAND 1904

Is being called for from all parts of the country. Libraries, schools, reading rooms and homes all want the Northern Pacific's latest. Send six cents for it to Chas. S. Fee, G. P. & T. A., at St. Paul, Minn.

A FINE LIBRARY

Of 140 volumes of the best literature is found on each of the Northern Pacific's "North Coast Limited" trains. Don't forget that these are the only trains operated in the west that are lighted throughout by electricity.

THE OBSERVATION CAR

Has barber shop and bath room, smoking and card rooms, library, and an elegant parlor for the ladies and all brilliantly lighted with electricity and cooled with electric fans. Mighty popular train this. All agents will be glad to give you any information desired.

"WHERE TO HUNT AND FISH."

Northern Pacific's new game book is now ready for distribution. Illustrations of LIVE GAME a particular feature. Four full pages from Seton-Thompson's drawings made specially for this book. Send address with six cents and book will be mailed to you by Chas. S. Fee, G. P. & T. A., St. Paul, Minnesota.

"NORTH COAST LIMITED"

Is only run by the Northern Pacific between Portland and Minneapolis and St. Paul through Tacoma, Seattle, Spokane, Missoula, Butte, Livingston, Billings, Bismarck, and Fargo. Eight of these trains are on the run daily, four east and four west. Each is a solid vestibuled train carrying Standard and Pullman Tourist sleepers, dining car, day coaches, mail, express and baggage car and the elegant observation car. Each train is brilliantly lighted with over 300 lights, and the beauty of it all is, you can travel just as cheaply on this train as any other. All representatives will be glad to give you additional information. A. D. Charlton, Assistant General Passenger Agent, 255 Morrison St. Portland, Oregon
