

You will not have two sets of manners; one for "company" and one for home use.

You will never remind a cripple of his deformity, or probe the sore spots of a sensitive soul.

You will not gulp down your soup so audibly that you be heard across the room, nor sop up the sauce in your plate with bits of bread.

You will let a refined manner and superior intelligence show that you have traveled, instead of constantly talking of the different countries you have visited.

You will not remark, while a guest, that you do not like the food which has been served to you.

You will not attract attention by either your loud talk or laughter, or show your egotism by trying to absorb conversation.—Success.

MOTOR LINE EXTENSION.

The building of three or four miles of electric motor line extension ought to be a small matter between a large government institution like the Chemawa Indian school and the city of Salem.

The additional value of property that will accrue and the increase in business that will come to Salem business houses would pay for that in a few years.

This is the plain reason why a liberal subsidy to get the road constructed would be a good investment.

Those small-minded persons who say the road will be built anyhow and hence oppose any subsidy, are too short-sighted to realize their own interests. It is said by some that J. J. Henry is not owner of the electric plant and therefore there has been a disposition to treat him in an unfair manner. If Mr. Henry is not owner, he represents those who do own the property and is a man we must deal with.—Salem Capital Journal.

Mr. George A. Bremner teacher and acting farmer in charge of the Lummi reservation, Wash., visited Chemawa last Monday and looked over all the departments of the school. The Lummi boys and girls were very glad to meet their old teacher and friend and he was much pleased to see them in the various shops and industrial departments, learning something which will be of great use to them in the future. Mr. Bremner has been at Lummi for six years and is doing good faithful work for the Indians and possesses their good will, respect and confidence.
