

LOCALS

The first snow of the season came on New Year's Day.

Basket ball engages the attention of our athletes at present.

The boys who were at The Dalles say they had a very pleasant time.

The electric car to Salem was well patronized during the holidays.

We have had a very gay Xmas week. Now let us get down to hard work.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and Miss Irene went to Salem to see "Richard the Third" at the Opera House.

Mr. Chalcraft received a handsome buffalo head as a Christmas present from Mr. Pablo of Montana.

Most of our pupils were very fortunate on Christmas; their friends presented them with very nice gifts.

A number of people from Chemawa went in to see "Sis Hopkins" at the Salem Opera House on New Year's Eve.

James Jefferson and Silas Moon after spending Xmas with school mates and friends returned to their homes last Sunday.

Some of the people who attended "Sis Hopkins" in Salem on New Year's Eve missed the last car and had to come home in a hack.

We hear that the girls of McBride Hall intent getting up an entertainment that will put the one given by the Nesika Club quite in the shade.

Grace Barrett has gone to Minneapolis with her father to visit relatives. Grace presented Mrs. Campbell with a very handsome Alaskan basket before she went away.

Violet Berner met her friend Merceline Hebert in Portland. Merceline used to be one of our pupils. She sends her best wishes to all of her friends and says she is doing well in her school work.

Mr. Campbell received a Menu Card of the pupils' Christmas dinner at Carlisle. The card was in excellent taste, and the menu was also of an "excellent taste" judging from the number of good things served.

Photographs of Colonel Randlett and Mr. Lew Stelzner were among the Xmas gifts received by some of our people. Both pictures are very fine, and the Colonel and Lew's friends were glad to receive them.

Katie Brewer made a very handsome pillow which she gave to her teacher at Christmas. Katie is a good seamstress, a good cook, good housekeeper and stand at the head or near the head of her class all the year around.

Mr. Potter our former superintendent sent Miss Irene Campbell a beautiful Scotch Collie puppy for a Christmas present. Miss Irene has named her dog "Kola" which is the Sioux name for "friend." Mr. Potter also presented a Collie puppy to Mr. James Smith. The two puppies are very handsome.

Mrs. Chalcraft gave a reception at the Cottage on New Year's night which was a very pleasant social event. Mrs. Chalcraft is an excellent hostess, and her guests are always sure of a good time. Er. Earnest Brewer was the lucky man who drew the first prize in the guessing contest—names of books. Mr. Woods received the consolation prize.
