Ten resolutions for our boys and girls

(Better late than never)

1. I will not use profane language.
2. I will not speak evil of any one.
3. I will be quiet and attentive in chapel.
4. I will not laugh at the mistakes of others.
5. I will try to be honest and just in all my dealings.
6. I will not use tobacco or intoxicating liquor in any form.
7. I will not appropriate unto myself anything belonging to another.
8. I will be quiet in the halls when going to and from class rooms and chapel.
9. I will endeavor with all my heart and strength to improve to the very best of my ability.
10. I will be courteous and polite. Never forgetting to say Mr., Mrs., or Miss in addressing employes. Never forgetting to raise my hat to the ladies when meeting them on the walk.

Through out the year I solemnly promise to keep the above resolution.

(Signed)

Be what you are. When you try to be other than you really are you lose all the force in you. Don't let what you believe to-day keep you from believing otherwise tomorrow. Live in the present, not in the past nor in the future. It is a sign of growth, of progress, when you are willing to throw away what you were yesterday and be something else today—only you must be yourself. I have found a new truth today and discarded what I believed about it yesterday. Tomorrow I hope to get more light and be different from what I am today. Otherwise stagnation and decay is inevitable. It is only the one of dull perception that can get nothing new, nothing different, no new truth, day by day.

—Appeal to Reason.
