

INDUSTRIAL NOTES

Henry Dillstrom is making a set of single dray harness.

Ignatius Bart is working on a set of extra heavy harness.

William Moore a new pupil is doing good work in the tailor shop.

Philip Sorahan has returned to his trade in the tailor shop after a visit home.

George Scott has been advanced to the cutting department of the tailor shop.

Elmer Sorahan and Ignatius Bart made a fine hackamore in the harness shop last week.

Mr. Philips has completed putting new gutters on the medium sized boys home — B.L.

The tailor boys have completed union suits for the little boys of Mrs. Newcomb's department.

Louie Lamoose who has just entered the harness shop, is working on a pair of team bridles.

John Boyce has just finished a set of back bands for a set of harness. John is a good worker

Maxime Barnaby has been appointed reporter in the harness shop for the month of January.

We are getting along fine with our repair work in the engine room which we for some time have been doing.

Clarence Bardwell is making good progress at his trade this week he made his first pair of long trousers and Mr. Beck states that they were very neatly made.

Philip Warren made himself a neat nailbox for use in the carpenter shop.

Grover Colby has finished this week a number of neat looking tables for use in the boys' building.

The engineers have had a nasty piece of work for several days past repairing the sewer leading from the engine room.

Mr. Trester, the house-mover, is now at work moving the Gymnasium to its new location on the North side of the school grounds.

The painters have about finished painting the room over the back office which will be used for the meetings of the Y. M. C. A. boys.

Mr. Mudge and a force of carpentry boys are busy making some improvements in the Commissary, which will increase the shelving capacity of the same.

The tailor boys are fighting hard for the prize offered by Mr. Beck for the best worker in the shop. There will be two divisions and a prize is offered to each division. George Scott, Leon Rankin, Philip Sorahan, each say they will come out second best, and Gideon Hanbury if he will be defeated it will not be for lack of neatness. The contest opens next Monday and every boy of both division is anxious to win. The American will watch this contest with interest and trust that other departments will follow the example.

Pendleton, Ore., Jan. 8, — Skalloo, one of the oldest and most picturesque Indian character on the Umatilla reservation, died yesterday morning and will be buried in the Agency cemetery today in accordance the ancient Indian custom. His exact age is unknown, but it is supposed to be somewhere in the neighborhood of 100 years.