A New Year's Song

Oh New Year,

Be true year,

To all our hearts and hands;

Oh year so new,

Bring skies of blue

And sunlight to the land.

Oh New Year,

Be true year,

To age and helpless youth;

Let every day,

Still pass away.

In God's white light of truth.

Oh New Year,

Be true year,

True to the soil and sea;

A beacon light,

That in the night

Mankind may look to Thee.

NO SNOW this winter, but there is plenty of time yet for "the beautiful" to appear.

HAVE YOU failed to keep those good resolutions? You have had twelve days for a trial.

WE WISH to express our thanks for the many kind words of appreciation we have received the last few months from our exchanges. One says, "three cheers for the AMERICAN and the boys behind it." That's enough to make us work with light hearts and willing hands for a whole life time.

WE NOTICED only a few inattentive girls and boys at the chapel last Sunday evening, but the greater part of the student body listened to the fine lecture and enjoyed it. It always pays to listen. There is none of us so wise, but that we can receive much benefit by closely following the words spoken by the able men who are sent here by the Y. M. C. A.

THE REPORT of the Honorable Commissioner of Indian Affairs for the fiscal year 1905 has been received. It gives an outline of Commissioner Leupp's policy and a review of the last year's work in the service.

Daily Thoughts.

Monday—No man has learned anything rightly until he knows that every day is Doomsday.

Tuesday—Believe nothing against another but upon good authority.

Wednesday—Cultivate not only the cornfields of your mind, but the pleasure grounds also.

Thursday—Nothing can bring you peace but the triumph of principles.

Friday—When one gets to love work, his life is a happy one.

Saturday—Success treads on every right step.—Ex.
