

BREVITIES

Mr. Ross has a good force of boys to work for him.

Mr. Donald Campbell left for Spokane on Saturday morning.

Jerome Beach is working on the dairy. And is doing good work milking cows.

William Watkins is a very fine worker. He's making a picture frame for himself.

Lee Evans is getting along very fine in wagon shop. He is helping Apis Goudy to make wagon wheels.

Mr. Herbert J. Campbell came down from Portland on Sunday morning and went back the same afternoon.

School has changed. The afternoon pupils are going in the morning and morning pupils are going in the afternoon.

Julia Selatsie and Harry Stuart of the A and B classes of the eighth grade respectively received the highest standing in the recent examination.

The farmers are digging holes under the stumps behind the schoolhouse and are getting ready for some loud blasting which is to be managed by Mr. Brewer.

The Max Pink building on Main street has been rented by the school trustees and is now used by Superintendent Potter for teaching the eighth and ninth grades. The rental of this building was made necessary to prevent overcrowding elsewhere. Superintendent Potter is teaching the children the "setting up" exercises and military drill and the pupils are rapidly becoming proficient.

—Twin Fall News.

Alice Williams passed the best examination in the 6th grade, her percentage being 94½.

Mrs. McClelland took forty-seven of the girls out for a long walk last Sunday afternoon. We always enjoy going with Mrs. McClelland as we are sure of a good time.

Mr. Hatt gave us a fine talk on Sunday night in regard of patriotism, love of country, love of God, and love of our fellowmen. He showed us the flags of England, Ireland and Scotland, and best of all, our own dear United States Flag.

Rumor has this story going around to the effect that the Hiawatha Club contemplates giving a Minstrel show some time in the near future. Good for them a good hearty laugh drives away the blues and makes a man forget his troubles. Keep the stone rolling Hiawatha.

The game of basket-ball played last Saturday night between the Hiawatha's and the Minne-ha-ha's was indeed a pleasure to look upon both from the standpoint of pleasure on the one hand and basket-ball as it should be played on the other. As the story goes of yore Hiawatha had his trouble but in the end won out. Thus it was the other night the Hiawathas won the game by hard fast playing to the tune of 12 to 7, the score shows the closeness of the game.

Capt. Edward P. Mahony of Havana, Cuba sends his best wishes for many bright and prosperous wishes for Chemawa. The Captain will be remembered by those who were at Chemawa in the Anti-Bellum days, he being a forerunner of the Cubans fight for independence; traveling through the Northwest telling people of the conditions that existed in Cuba and asking for their help.
