

EXCHANGES

The Orator comes regularly.

The Whirlwind presents an attractive appearance. The story of "The Scarecrow" by Mammie Beeson, '07, was very interesting.

We thank the Pedestal for its instructive advice of improvements, but we would like to have you call us by our proper name, THE WEEKLY CHEMAWA AMERICAN.

The Clarion is becoming more popular among our exchanges. Congratulations can be found almost in every exchange column. It contains many interesting articles, and if the advertisements were not mixed with the reading matter it would be almost perfect.

The High School Review, Sacramento, Cal., has a very well edited exchange column. The apologies of the exchange editor was cleverly written. We heartily congratulate you, Mr. Exchange Editor, for your good work.

Her Little Composition.

A class was reciting in a school. "Who can give me" said the teacher, "a sentence in which the words 'bitter end' are used?"

Up jumped a little girl excitedly. "I can, teacher. 'The cat ran under the bureau and the dog ran after her and bit her end.'"—Ex.

A curling iron, a cunning curl;
A powder box a pretty girl,
A little rain, away it goes,
A homely girl with freckled nose.

TOM CRONISE'S STUDIO

It would be well for all those who desire a good photograph of themselves to visit the art gallery of Tom Cronise and have themselves photographed. His pictures are admired by all who have viewed them, and his prices are exceedingly liberal considering the excellence of his work.
