

PUPILS' ITEMS

Miss Brown has a handsome new watch and chain.—M. B.

All of the Alaska girls say that they feel at home when it snows.—A. E.

The plumbers are kept busy nowadays thawing out frozen water pipes.—J. L.

Can't we have a sleigh ride? That is what they do every place when there is snow.

Louise Murray is taking music lessons from Gertrude Brewer, and is improving rapidly.—B. C.

Mrs. Wm. McCoy who has been here at Chemawa, will leave for home in a few days.—C. F.

We the dairy boys were sorry to see Chas. Bardwell leave because he was good and industrious.—W. H.

The girls are tuning up their instrument and we hope the orchestra will soon start up.—M. L.

Miss Marie Hutchins, of Salem, came out on a sleigh to visit Ella Brewer Monday evening.—T. S.

Mrs. Rosenberger is making a pretty bead chain for her daughter, Jennie Rosenberger.—A. M.

It is all right to play snow ball but be careful when you throw them. Do not damage school property.

Mr. Thomas Richie of Pendleton Ore., was here visiting Myrtle and Violet Berner last week.—A. H.

Mrs. Thiez is busy passepartouting pictures for McBride Hall and takes a great deal of interest in our home.—M. B.

Violet Edwards is a beginner in taking music lessons from Miss Brewer and is learning very fast.—E. N.

Essie Reed is doing some very pretty drawn work for May Saylor who used to be a pupil of this school.—L. D.

We are all waiting for the snow to thaw away. Mrs. Campbell says she is wishing for a little rain.—E. S.

The boys will all be glad when they fix the old barn. Then there will be some basketball playing.—F. S.

Anna Chalifone is looking for her cousin, Wm. Pishette to come any day. He will attend this school.—M. M.

The girls of Chemawa now have a lot of college songs and yells. That's right girls, have the school spirit.—B. C.

Boys and girls if you want to live long, please take care of yourselves. Don't stay out in the cold too much.—G. B. H.

Thursday forenoon the eighth grade B class enjoyed themselves skating on the lake. It was such fun. They wouldn't mind going again.—L. M.

It is snowing at Chemawa; the snow is about five inches deep, and it is frozen quite hard this morning, and the boys are having fun skating on the hard snow.—E. A.

Up in northern Idaho it's 20 below zero and they say it's the coldest weather they have had for sometime. So you boys from Idaho better stay here at Chemawa where it is not so cold.—P. G.

Miss Myrtle Johnson is going to school in Fruitland Wash. She says she likes to ride to school in a sleigh and throw the snow. She sends all of her friends and schoolmates her love.—M. T.