

PUPILS' ITEMS

Grover Colby returned to school last Sunday.

We are having very cold and wet weather.

Mr. Ross has about 20 boys working on his detail.

Martin Hartless is a very good hard-tack eater.

Elvira Bain is getting along fine in the sewing room.

John McCush is getting to be a good basketball player.

Louisa Herman left on Tuesday for her home in Ketchikan Alaska.

Mr. Brewer, has moved his office to room No. 2 in large boys' home.

Bert Leggett said that he likes to work in the dairy where he could drink milk.

Mrs. Mann is the matron in the middle sized boys' home in Mrs. Hilb's place.

It is getting very cold now. We hope it will not be long before it gets warm.

The dress-makers had their party last Friday evening. It was enjoyed by all.

Sarah Pierce is now a floor girl of the McBride Hall, and she likes her work.

We are all glad to hear that Mr. Bohlander, our former dairyman, is coming back.

George Horn is working on the lawn for Mr. Cooper. George is a pretty good worker.

We are all glad to see our new cook. We hope that she will like it here at Chemawa.

We are now having some bad weather but it will only last a few days, it is cold and rainy.

Do you belong to the C. H. Sunday School class that meets weekly over at McBride Hall?

Alice Williams is having a beautiful coat made in the tailor shop under the instruction of Mr. Beck.

The printers get through with their work on Friday and practice basket-ball on Saturday forenoon.

The motto in the sixth grade is "Building Character" which we hope will prove a great help to the class.

The farmers are glad to see their new barn nearly finished. It will be one of the best barns in the Indian Service.

Robert Davis made the best speech last Sunday evening at the joint meeting of the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Mann, the blacksmith instructor, has resigned and left for Washington for a new field. We sincerely wish him success.

Nellie Shepard is working in the sewing room and she is doing very nicely with her work. She has made two nice dresses for herself without any help.

Edwin Lachance is getting to be a good tailor and when he gets back in Grande Ronde he can make good trousers for himself.

CRONISE STUDIO

The best studio in the city of Salem to have your photographs taken is the Cronise Studio. Prices are reasonable and the work is always executed in the latest styles. This studio has won for itself a reputation among its many patrons in and around Salem, and if the students of the United States Training School desire a fine photograph they should call at this excellent art gallery.
