

EXCHANGES

The cuts of the foot ball and basket ball teams in the Nugget were very good.

The Sheridan High School, Sheridan Wyo., was added to our exchange list this week.

We found many interesting stories in The Indian School Journal. The story entitled "A Quaint Philippine Town" would hold the attention of many readers from start to finish.

The commencement number of the Comet in December was very well gotten up. The picture of the high school building on the cover, and about five or six cuts inside representing the class and the foot ball team and other departments with the well written orations by the class '05½ makes the paper very interesting and a credit to the school.

Other exchanges on the table are:

The Lakawinn, The Gold and Blue, The Whirlwind, The Native American, The Orator, The Review, The Albuquerque Indian, The Indian's Friend, The Philomath College Chimes, The Apokepsian, The Red and White, The Indian School Journal, Dictum Est, The Boys' Banner, The Spinster, Wyoming Student, The Pharos, The Columbiad, The Messenger.

Teacher in Lincoln school, to pupil sitting with her feet in the aisle: "Nellie, have you gum in your mouth?"

Nellie: "Yes, ma'am."

Teacher: "Well take it out and put your feet in."—Ex.

"Is that a birthmark on your friend's forehead?"

"No, that's a laundry mark."

"A laundry mark? how odd."

"Not so very. A chinaman hit him with a flatiron."—Ex.
