

EXCHANGES

Although many of the Christmas numbers of our exchanges are just reaching us and we believe that there are many yet on the road to Chemawa, but though their arrival is rather late yet it's a great pleasure to receive those fine editions.

Opposite the first page of the Red and Black was the cut of their foot-ball team which shows many husky athletes. It's contents are interesting as well as instructive.

Among our exchanges the Orator, Spokane, Wash., has the best cover design.

The Christmas number of the Whittier Boys and girls Magazine was very well gotten up. The two cuts, one of the Cadets Band under a date palm, and the other of the Junior Cadet Company, showing the beautiful grounds, also was a pleasing feature of the paper. The letters from the different officers and patrons of the school to the girls and boys were very encouraging.

We found many interesting short stories in the Review also many blank places which add the size of the paper only. Would it not be better to fill them?
