

PUPILS' ITEMS

Martin Sampson is quite a violinist.

Jane Hollis is a laundry girl this week.

Josie Peone is working in the dining hall.

Mr. Spink left for Montana to get some pupils.

Ethel Coburn is doing nicely in the fourth grade.

Harry Mercier is getting to be a good harness maker.

Mr. Kaiser is in the radiator valve business this week.

Alfred Lane is running the little engine this week.

The farmers are busy grubbing stumps by the new barn.

The Fourth grade pupils are glad and pleased with their new teacher.

Billet Lobert, who recently arrived at Chemawa, entered the sixth grade.

If any of you have a knife without a handle apply to Alex Young for repairs.

Ignace Peone is starting to learn how to cut and fit different parts of harness.

Lena Charles and May Stanup are working in the Domestic Science this week.

Charles Wacheno has completed a set of back harness for a party at Grande Ronde.

The Yakima basket-ball team is practicing hard for the next game with the printers.

The plumbers have almost completed packing the radiator valves through the school.

The basket-ball girls are practicing hard because they are going to play with the O. A. C. girls next week.

Leon Parker is night fireman this week and does his work very well, but he lets the steam blow off once in a while.

The many friends of Mrs. Chalcraft and Alice are sorry to hear of their illness, but hope they will soon recover.

Quite a number of girls visited the domestic science and got something good to eat. Probably they will make another visit.

Mr. Lew Stelzner sang two beautiful songs for the school on Monday night. Every one hopes he will do us a favor again.

The pupils of the seventh grade are all glad to have their teacher, Mrs. Campbell with them again after an illness of few days.

James Sloan is sick in the hospital and we all hope he will recover soon for we would be glad to see him around the grounds again.

We have heard that John Benson is well known by his laughter for every little thing in the school room. Say, John, can we believe this?

Miss Johnston says she has gained three pounds since she came to Chemawa. We believe that if she keeps gaining at that rate for such time she will be weighted a ton before the end of this year.

The seventh grade pupils were sorry to hear that their classmate, Lizzie Frazier, met with an accident. She is a bright girl and we all hope she will get well in the near future.

Mr. Teabo, manager of the girls basket-ball first team, is going to arrange games for these following dates: Feb, 2 Feb, 9 Feb, 16 and contemplates playing a game with Willamette some time later.
