The beautiful days begin to show.

Miss Alice Chalcraft is confined to her bed suffering with a severe cold.

Louise Murray and Mabel McKay were visiting friends in Brooks Sunday.

"I am doing good work on my top peg this afternoon boys," said Calvin Darnell.

Chemawa is an enjoyable place, especially in the spring when the birds begin to sing.

Nora and Hattie Mann and Harriet Jones were with the inspecting party last Sunday.

Mrs. Theisz accompanied Mattie Hayden to Brooks Saturday morning to meet her friend Miss Mills from Alaska enroute to California.

The harness makers have completed a set of back harness for Mr. Cooper, under the instruction of Mr. Morresette, and are now making a heavier set for Supt. Egbert, of Siletz.

News has reached the school that Ruth Scott has been married to Benjamin Dundas, who was a member of the Metlakatla Band, and was with them when they visited Chemawa. The good wishes of Ruth's many friends are extended to the young couple.

A very pleasant party was given by Mrs. Campbell on Wednesday evening, Jan. 31, in honor of Mr. Lew Stetzner who celebrated his 20th birthday on that day. Progressive Flinch was played, the winners of the prizes being Miss Jones and Mr. Chalcraft. Mr. Stetzner was heartily congratulated by his friends and was the recipient of a number of beautiful presents.

The members of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. are going to give a reception next Saturday evening.

Those who attended the party given by the members of the Estelle Reel Literary Society had a good time and most gladly thank the members.

The engineers have installed electric light at the railway station, which adds very much to the convenience of those who get on and off of the trains at Chemawa after dark.

The wagonmakers are hard at work repairing the water tower, which needs very heavy timbers replaced. This is quite a big contract, with a 25,000 gallon water tank standing 85 feet in the air.

The carpenter boy apprentices under Mr. Woods are rapidly closing in the porch at the kitchen, and the engineers have arranged a place for the slop cart to stand, so that conditions there will be greatly improved.

The Nonpareil Literary Society is improving rapidly and all members are proud of their society. The Nonpareil Society won the honors from the other debating societies last year and have made it a point to keep the honor as long as they have the power to debate for it.

Mr. Westley our gardener, has arrived from his vacation in Tennessee. Mr. Westley reports that he had a fine time and also enjoyed his trip and that the weather was so nice while he was in east. The people in Tennessee asked him what we are raising in the west and whether we picked hops from the trees. We were all glad to see Mr. Westley again for he is a jolly man.
