

EXCHANGES

The Boys' Banner is an interesting paper.

We see the January number of the Indian News that it is growing in size. Also it contains a number of interesting Indian stories.

"The Tulare Game" in the Owl was very well written. The following lines introduced the article which was written by L. H. '06:

The man behind the line-up,

Out on the football field,
Around the ends, upon a fake

A few yards tries to steal,
Is the man who gets the credit,
For he is the man behind, the man behind;

But the fellow who does the work,
Who his duty does not shirk,
Is the man upon the line.

The Orderly is quite a neat paper. We welcome you Hill Military Academy.

The "Cupid's Messenger" and the "An Incident in the life of a Freshman" in the Whims were interesting. Also it has an attractive cover.

The Columbiad is a very neat paper and the cuts of the first and second football teams with the short stories of the players makes the paper very interesting, except that it has no exchange column, like so many of our sisters. Would not it be better for your paper to establish this department?

How do you do, Philomath College Chimes. We are glad to see you on our exchange desk. We ought to be neighborly.

Read the jokes in the Apokeepsian on January's number they are certainly good.

The Cue is also with us this week.
