

COCHES

Who won? Was the cry.

Have you received a Valentine?

Col. Randlett, Mr., Mrs. Campbell took a drive to Brooks on Sunday afternoon.

The moon gazers were all alert on the 8th looking at the eclipse which was very easily seen—not a cloud in sight.

James Minesinger was promoted from the fourth A to the fifth B last Thursday morning.

Every body is commenting upon the excellent address of Col. Randlett on Sunday night.

Mrs. Spink is famous for the delicious cocoa she makes and serves in her dainty chocolate cups.

Some pleasant social evenings were spent at the residences of Mr. Spinks and Mr. Woods during the week.

Charles Payne deserves all the praise he has received for his fine work during the game played at Corvallis.

There are so many delightful entertainments being given at Chemawa that it keeps the reporters busy keeping track of them.

The weather is very pleasant at Chemawa. The sun shines and the grass is green and pretty every thing look very pleasant.

Miss Irene Campbell expects to leave Galveston on the 17th of this month. If she does she will arrive in Chemawa about the 24th.

Mr. Young our assistant cook, left for Oregon City to spend a day with Mr. Williams our former chief cook, last Wednesday morning.

Last Friday evening a game of basket ball between our first team and Woodburn was played to the hardest fought battle. The score was 43 to 15 in favor of Chemawa team.

The spectators on Saturday's baseball game were very much amused to see Russell White Bear have a stampede with his shadow. The latter winning by a neck's length.

Mrs. F. E. Hall, one of our neighbors dropped into the Office this week and renewed her subscription to the "American." She says "We like the little paper as it gives us the news."

"Excuse me honey" after every bump and tumble, the C. I. S. girls received during the game played with the O. A. C. girls. In spite of all their tumbles the score was eleven to nineteen in favor of Chemawa.

Myrtle Sperry sends the CHEMAWA AMERICAN a postal photograph of Mount Shasta, California. Myrtle's many friends at Chemawa would be glad to hear from her. She is at present located at Upton, California.

Orson Bell who made his debut as a solo singer at the Hiawatha entertainment on Monday night surprised his friends with his beautiful bass voice. If Orson will practice he will have one of the finest voices ever heard in Chemawa.

Miss Blanche Charnley has renewed her subscription to the American from Roseburg, Oregon. Miss Charnley was formerly a temporary employee of the school, among the several positions that she filled acceptably was that of printer.

The Chemawa girls' basket-ball team extend their Corvallis friends a most hearty vote of thanks for their kind treatment, and wonder if all the other classes contain as many young ladies and gentlemen as does the Freshman class.