

EXCHANGES

The Red and Black has a very attractive cover.

The Purple and Gold is a very neat paper.

The editorials in the Clarion, Salem High School, Ore., are very good.

What our friends say:

The WEEKLY CHEMAWA AMERICAN is even better than some of our monthly papers. Let us improve our papers.—The Review.

CHEMAWA AMERICAN, your jokes as a rule are very humorous and witty; don't forget them as you sometimes do.—The College Barometer.

The CHEMAWA AMERICAN appears regularly.—The Kodak.

Two good numbers of the WEEKLY CHEMAWA AMERICAN have been received. They have no regularly appointed editor, but one would not know it in reading their weekly.—The Nugget.

The WEEKLY CHEMAWA AMERICAN is always welcome and contains many interesting things, but we want to make one suggestion—this will do for the Native American, Phoenix, Arizona, as well. Get a prettier cover design. There must be some among you who draw, and you have so many beautiful suggestions among you that you surely can improve your cover designs and possibly add a few cuts.—The Pedestal.

The CHEMAWA AMERICAN is now presided over by Fortunato Jayne class of '06, who is Editor-in-chief.—The Indian News.

Some men are born to greatness

With luck their lives begin;

And some achieve distinction

And others just "butt in."
