

PUPILS' ITEMS

James McGee is able to walk around again.

Our basket-ball teams are excellent this year.

Lena Ashue is getting to be a good dressmaker.

James French is doing fine in the Fourth A class.

Maxim Barnaby is becoming a fine player on his clarinet.

John Benson is making a very nice table for the Y. M. C. A. hall.

All the tailor boys were glad to see Walter Haight back in the shop again.

The Nonperails hope to give an entertainment a week from next Thursday.

Katie Henry is working in the hospital now, and she is learning to be a good cook.

Silas Albert, a new pupil from Klamath will join the Chemawa band in a few days.

The eighth B pupils are learning how to invest their money in stocks and bonds.

The carpenters are making new tables for the dining hall. Each table will seat six.

Hurrah! the Albany basket-ball team is asking our girls to show them how to play ball.

Mr. Kaiser is putting a new pump in the boiler room. It will be a great help to the fireman.

We are all very glad to see Miss Amy Bagnell from Portland, visiting her friends at Chemawa.

We had a song service on Sunday night. The pupils selected hymns and the choir sang an anthem.

May Saylor returned to her home in Washington, after being five years in school at Chemawa, Oregon.

The boys that came from Hoopa Valley are over with their home sickness and are making themselves at home now.

The sixth grade pupils have just got through reading about Longfellow's life. Now they will read the life of Whittier.

A birthday party given by Mrs. Brewer for her daughter, Gertrude, was one of the pleasant social events of the week.

The farmers are beginning to plow up the ball ground which is to be leveled off. We may look forward to a good ball ground.

It is no wonder Tillie Souvigner is called "expert" by the little boys, for the way she played last Friday made the big ones call her "expert."

If you want to hear good stories, go to Grover Colby and Orin French. They generally have their meetings on Sundays by the school building.

Last Sunday the McBride Hall girls received a letter from Mr. and Mrs. Foster. Mrs. Foster says she is very happy and likes her father-in-law very much.

The pupils of the sixth grade are studying on the progress of man from the savage state to the civilized stage. It is needless to say that they enjoy it very much.

Last Saturday evening our first team basket-ball boys went to Woodburn and played the Woodburn team. The Chemawa team won and the score was said to be 35 to 26.

The Tailors and Harness-makers played a game of basket-ball last Monday evening. The Harness-makers were defeated by the almighty Tailors, the score being 21 to 2 in favor of the Tailors.
