

The weather has been very cold the last few days.

The girls are practicing hard so we will expect a good program.

Lizzie Orcutt works in the laundry and thinks it is a very nice place to work.

The Nonpareil Society is beginning to grow. Every meeting new members are coming in.

Mrs. Campbell is very proud of Francis Guardipee, he is the best reader in the sixth grade.

Hurrah for our Oregon rain! It is very fine and beautiful. All the boys enjoy it very much.

Mr. Wheeler the private secretary of the new buildings left on the morning train for Utah.

The gardeners are now sorting the potatoes in the root house and have gone over a good many bushels already.

Ignace Peone is missed by his many class mates and friends on account of his illness, we all hope he will soon be well.

The new boys that came say they like it here very much and feel at home. The boys have taken them in hand and made them feel welcome.

The Estelle Reels gave an excellent program last meeting which was enjoyed by the Hiawatha Club members, who were their visitors during their last meeting and they also entertained us. The song Orson Bell sang was grand.

Last Tuesday evening the game between the plumbers and tailors resulted in the defeat of the tailor boys, 16 to 11 in favor of the plumbers; but the tailor boys will meet the plumbers on the floor and we will see that the "plumb" will according to the "square."

Third and Fourth Grades' Entertainment

The entertainment given in the Assembly Hall last evening was enjoyed by all who were present. The stage was prettily and appropriately decorated for the occasion. A long festoon of Oregon grape was draped transversely above the stage. In the center of which were hung many national painted hatches. The back part of the stage was covered with national colors mingled with Oregon grape. Occupying a prominent place in the rear of the stage were beautifully framed portraits of our revered Presidents, Washington, McKinley and our beloved Roosevelt. The whole representing a beautiful picture which will never be forgotten.

The program rendered in the evening was greatly appreciated by all. The patriotism in the hearts of the audience was awakened to a greater extent by the stirring music of the band, which Miss Miller had secured for the evening. Every number was delivered and carried out in a most successful manner and several beautiful tableaus were a pleasing feature. It was not until at a rather late hour with a feeling of reluctance that the audience left the Assembly Hall all thanking Miss Miller and her pupils for their pleasant evening.

Happy Hooligan (entering barber shop)—"I should like to have my mustache dyed."

Barber—"Certainly, did you bring it with you?"—Ex.

"If you want eggs to keep, they must be laid in a cool place."

Bridget—"O'i'll mention it to the hins at once, mum."—Ex.
