

LOCALS

Colonel Randlett visited some friends near Salem on Monday evening.

They have began laying the rails for the new street car line beginning in North Salem.

The new cottage is completed and Mr. Campbell and family will move in in a few days.

Washington's birthday was observed with appropriate exercises in the different rooms Thursday.

Last Monday evening the sailors defeated their husky oppononts in a game of basket-ball to the score of 21 to 2.

Mrs. Campbell is busy practicing with some boys and girls every evening after school. There is to be an entertainment in honor of Colonel Randlett.

We are all very glad to see Mrs. Newcomb about the grounds once more. We certainly missed her very much during her absence of about six weeks.

Miss Ethel Parrish, after spending a pleasant visit in Chemawa returned to Portland last Sunday evening to resume her studies at Portland High School.

The basket-ball girls after making a rapid progress in playing, have been promoted as sergeants and expecting higher promotion, if not defeated by the Willamette. Work hard girls.

Sarah Peirce and Philip Sorahan stood highest in the last monthly spelling review in the B class of grade eight, in a hundred-word test. Sarah was perfect and Philip missed but four words.

Miss Lulu Beach left for her home, Bellingham, Washington, last Tuesday evening. Miss Beach, for many years has been a pupil of Chemawa and she will be missed by her many friends.

Mrs. Beck has been quite sick for the past few days, but is convalescing. We all feel sorry for her as she is a stranger among us and it is very hard to be sick and away from home at the same time.

The first team defeated the Woodburn basket-ball team at Woodburn, last Saturday night in a fast and spirited game, by the score of 35 to 26. The Woodburn boys put up a hard game but were no match for our boys.

A reception was given at McBride Hall in honor of the Albany girls' basket-ball team, after the game last Friday evening. The evening was pleasantly spent in singing and playing games. Light refreshments were served and then train time was announced. The girls and boys accompanied their guests to the station.

One of the most enjoyable games of basket-ball was played Wednesday evening between the small girls and the small boys. Both teams were composed of boys and girls from nine to twelve years old. The girls have better team work than the boys, but rather slow in passing the ball. The boys put up a fast clean game and made a score of 10 to 0. Poor little girls!

Four basket-ball games were played in the gymnasium last Tuesday evening. The first game was played between the tailors and the harness-makers; the second game was played between the first team and the second team; the third game was played between the printers and the farmers; and the fourth game was played between the soldiers and a picked-up team. The tailors, the first team, the printers, and the soldiers were the winners.
