

EXCHANGES

The Nugget has an appropriate title, for its contents are worth gold.

The Gold and Blue contains a very well written story entitled "Because of the Vision."

We were surprised with four late numbers of the Comics, Zanesville High School, Ohio. We extend a cordial greeting to our new exchange.

It is rather queer sometimes to find the heading "Exchange" and nothing that pertains to exchanges in it. This is a criticism we found in the Philomath Chimes.

Opposite the first page of the Native American, was a cut of Sabora Day School, San Jacinto, California. Judging by the picture one would think that the scenery around the school is beautiful.

The Red and White deserves great praise for its neatness.

The Orator is a very well written weekly and never fails to appear on time.

The exchange editors may scratch with their pens.

Until the ends of his or her fingers are sore,

When some one is sure to say with a jest,

Psshaw! How stale! We heard it before.—Ex.

"I wish I were a night watchman."
"Why?" "I could sleep all day and save my board, and work all night and save my lodging."—Ex.

Mrs. Flanigan—"I want a pair of shoes for my boy."

Salesman—"French kid, ma'am?"

Mrs. F.—"No, sor, Irish!"—Ex.
