

PUPILS' ITEMS

Oregon weather is paying a visit to Chemawa.

John Sulky is getting to be an expert making doors.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell are living in their new cottage now.

Thomas Yallup was promoted from fourth B to the fourth A.

May Stanup is taking music lessons and she is learning very fast.

Some of the McBride Hall girls are talking of giving an old maid party.

The blacksmiths are busy ironing off wagons and doing a lot of repairing.

The farmers are hard at work fixing the ball ground for the coming season.

The men are hauling lumber to the large boys building, so as to remodel it soon.

Nellie Davis is one of the best cooks in the hospital kitchen. But she is rather slow.

We are all glad to see Miss Irene Campbell back to Chemawa after visiting her aunt Mrs. Adams, at Galveston, Texas.

The lumber has come with which they are going to repair the mid size boys' home. The farmers were busy hauling it Monday and Tuesday.

The Nonpareil Literary Society will give an entertainment next Thursday, March 8th, at seven o'clock in the chapel. This entertainment is for the purpose of raising funds for the society. A small admission will be charged. Come and be entertained. A good program has been arranged consisting of dramas, tableaux, music, recitations, etc. Pupils 5 cents. Outsiders 10 cents.

Mr. Cooper and some boys are making a walk past Mr. Swartz's house to the barn.

We are all glad to see Ignace Peone back in school again after his short spell of illness.

The carpenters are practicing basketball every morning before the rising bugle blows.

All the pupils of the third grade are glad to see Adeline Robinson back in school again.

We are all glad to hear that Lizzie Frazier is up and around again after her sad accident.

The sixth and seventh grade pupils are proud of the picture Mrs. Campbell presented them.

Maxime Barnaby is a good harness-maker. He made a leather handle for Walter Randeau's case last week.

Annie Evans is working in the sewing room now if she keeps on she will become a fine dress-maker some day.

The Nonpareils Literary Society is expecting to give a party next week. And we are looking ahead for a good time.

Lillie Patton is working in the sewing room and Mrs. Cooper is proud of her because she does her work very neatly.

Mrs. Lovelace's beautiful white Angora kitten "Bridget" died last Friday evening from eating fish. Is this a fish story?

TOM CRONISE'S STUDIO

It would be well for all those who desire a good photograph of themselves to visit the art gallery of Tom Cronise and have themselves photographed. His pictures are admired by all who have viewed them, and his prices are exceedingly liberal considering the excellence of his work.