

EXCHANGES

The Crescent comes to us always as neat as a "new pin."

Always put your jokes on thin paper, so the editor can see through them.—Ex.

There is some room for improvement in the Little Methodist's publication, as the print of the paper is poor.

Every exchange editor is an invention of the devil. Whenever he sees a good thing he carefully cuts it out.—Ex.

The Orderly delivers its message every month in a very orderly manner. The arrangement of its departments is unequaled.

We found in the Tomahawk a very interesting article, "Outlines of an Indian Policy" from the Commissioner's report 1905.

The February edition of the Pharos has Lincoln's picture on its cover, his birthday coming in this month. What more appropriate design could be selected?

The Whims' number for this month has some very humorous jokes. "A little wit now and then, is relished by the wisest men." (The editor of the AMERICAN not excepted.)

CROXISE STUDIO

The best studio in the city of Salem to have your photographs taken is the Cronise Studio. Prices are reasonable and the work is always executed in the latest styles. This studio has won for itself a reputation among its many patrons in and around Salem, and if the students of the United States Training School desire a fine photograph they should call at this excellent art gallery.

FOR SALE.—A new Rambler or National bicycle for either lady or gentleman; reasonable. Inquire at AMERICAN office.
