

LOCALS

Respect old age.

Who said cheat?

There was a flurry of snow on Sunday afternoon.

The Nonpareil party was enjoyed by those who attended.

Can this be true that the more you eat the fatter you get?

Mr. Chalcraft went away on school business last Monday.

The basket ball game on Saturday night was largely attended.

Sunday and Monday were the only real cold days of the winter.

Mr. Forbes gave an interesting and instructive talk on Sunday night.

The Nonpareil Society has given one of the best entertainments of the season.

Lena and Jesse Kirk returned from Klamath Agency on Sunday afternoon.

Newton Sutton went to his home at Siletz last week to take care of his father.

Floyd and Willie Hayden departed Sunday with their father for a short visit home.

The sixth and seventh grades will begin their quarterly examination in the latter part of this month.

Mrs. Cloutier and her mother have moved into the rooms formerly occupied by Mr. Campbell and family.

The first of the week, scores of our friends, the robins, have come to be with us again. Looking from the window the writer counted over thirty of these plump red breasts tripping about on the green lawn at one time.

Mr. Forbes took charge of the Y. M. C. A. meeting, which was interesting to the members and also a great help to them.

Ella Brewer, who took the part of fairy godmother in "Cinderella," showed good dramatic ability and made a very pretty godmother.

Carl Geffe recently received a letter from his brother Mr. Eugene Geffe from Buenos Ayres, South America, where he is with Wheelock's Indian Band.

Bessie Chiloquin, who had charge of most of the entertainment of the Nonpareils, deserves much credit for her management and for her fine acting.

Mr. Campbell returned from Seaside, Wash., Saturday morning with the following new pupils: Agnes Tone, Caroline, Sarah and Jonathan Hackman.

Louisa Murray made a very pretty Cinderella in the play given by the Nonpareil Literary Society, Thursday evening. Martin Sampson also made a fine prince.

Last Friday evening the boys basketball team from the Pacific College, Newberg, Oregon, played here against our first team. Misses Gertrude Minthorn and Sibyl Woodworth, daughters of former employes came up and visited Miss Gertrude Brewer.

A crowd of the young people of Chemawa gathered at Mrs. Mann's, Monday evening to attend the farewell party given in honor of Miss Harriet Jones. All sorts of games and taffy pulling took up the time of the evening in a very pleasant manner. Dainty refreshments were served at a late hour. All the guests join together in thanking Mrs. Mann and daughters for the pleasant evening.