

EXCHANGE

The thoughts of the exchange editor of the Red and White are very good and suggestive and can be rightly applied and believed by all the school papers.

The compositions on some of Shakespeare's characters that we find in the Ilukawin, on March's number, are of the highest order and are very interesting matter.

The exchange editor of the High School Review, Sacramento, California, laments the fact that no one criticises their paper. Our advise is to "let well enough alone. If there was an occasion for criticism it would not have been withheld.

A new exchange the Woman's Home Mission, has reached us and introduced herself to become a member in our exchange association. It contains a number of Indian stories in which we were very much interested.

A young man from Kalamzoo
Loved a pretty young miss named Sue,
So he sent her a cat
Wrapped up in a mat,
With a note, "I've a feline for you."
