

Some of our boys at Chemawa attended the show in Salem last Monday evening.

Chemawa's third team defeated the Woodburn second team last Friday evening by the score of 22 to 3.

Edward Ainsworth went to Portland on a visit last Thursday and returned Friday.

We are all glad to welcome Julian Bell back to Chemawa after his long vacation.

Sallie Boswell is still working for Mrs. Chalcraft. Sallie must be a good little house keeper.

Mr. Morrisette has just repaired his violin and we expect to hear some good music soon.

Grace Beaver has been detailed to the small boys' patch room and does her work satisfactorily.

The fourth grade A class has been divided in two sections and John Benson is teaching the other.

Jane Hollis is now working in the dining hall after working in the laundry, the last few details.

Mr. Lovelace and one of the school boys are putting the electric lights in Mr. Swartz's house.

The St. Patrick's Day party given by Mr. and Mrs. Cooper was one of the most pleasant events of the season.

Neva Souvigner has left the large boys' patch room and has been put on the revolving detail with her sister Tillie.

Bessie Lahr is now learning to be a cook under the instructions of Mrs. Dollie Teabo. We all hope she will succeed.

Annie Galbreath is working in the laundry and is doing fine for the short time she has been there. She will be an expert if she keeps on.

The C. I. S. basket ball girls expect to play their next game with Salem High School. Don't go back on your home team, show your school spirit.

Mr. Cox took his place Monday morning as head cook, and Mrs. Cox as Dining Hall matron and Mrs. McClellan took her place as large boys matrons.

Mrs. Collins is spending a few days here with her Chemawa friends. This is her first visit here and she thinks that it is a beautiful place.

The sixth grade pupils are deeply in sorrow over the accident that happened to one of their school mates, Peter Solstice. Hope for the rapid recovery of his hurt arm.

ESTELLE REELS and ROOSEVELTS.

The following program was well rendered in room 6 at their last meeting: Song, Stella Feister and Weulea Downie; Recitation, Josie Cayou; Reading, Andrew Bittles; Song, Maudie McIntire and Emma Cameron; Joke, John Miller. Debate; Resolved: That, steam boats have done more for this country than railroads. Affirmative, Andrew Bittles Negative, Weulea Downie.

THINGS FOR US TO REMEMBER.

That others have feelings.
That fine clothes don't make fine men.
That one kind word will produce a joy.
That more money can be made in one's own business than in a week mind ing the affairs of others.

TOM CRONISE'S STUDIO

It would be well for all those who desire a good photograph of themselves to visit the art gallery of Tom Cronise and have themselves photographed. His pictures are admired by all who have viewed them, and his prices are exceedingly liberal considering the excellence of his work.
