Mr. F. A. Loomis was out from Salem Sunday visiting friends at Chemawa.

Paul Lafferty returned to Grande Ronde last week on account of sickness at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Spink and Miss Booth attended "The Christian" at Salem on Monday night.

The entertainment last Wednesday evening at the assembly hall was very much enjoyed by the attendance.

Mr. Lovelace called a meeting last Thursday evening with the engineers instructing them how and what to do in case of a fire-drill.

Orson Bell and Ignace Peone left on the afternoon train Saturday for Portland to meet Orson's brother, Julian. They spent Sunday in the city and returned Sunday evening.

At singing class on Monday night Mrs. Campbell had the choir sing a very fine selection, and Arthur Tyler sang a solo which he illustrated with pictures drawn by himself. Carl Geffe accompanied him on the clarinet.

Miss Bowman has a miniature orchard in her school room. The prunes and cherries are in full bloom. The pear and apple buds are just beginning to open. The children are proud of every bud and blossom.

Mr. Spink thought an Oregon mosquito was biting his fancy hose and he held out as long as he could when he discovered that it was hot water dripping from the radiator. He wears low shoes in the office. Oregon mosquitos are not like Georgia mosquitos.

Peter Seltice whose arm was amputated is getting along nicely. We all sympathize with Peter in his great trouble, but feel assured that he will soon learn to do good work with his left hand. Peter is one of the best and brightest boys in Chemawa and has a host of friends anxiously awaiting the news of his complete recovery.

Chemawa Indian School base-ball team organized for the season of 1906. Mr. David E. Brewer is elected manager, J. M. Teabo, captain and field manager.
