HE LAUGHS best who laughs with the teacher's laughs.

WE ARE greatly indebted to Mrs. Campbell for doing the greater part of the work of sending news for our paper.

GIRLS BE careful how you dress. Be neat about all the little details of your toilet. Never never wear pink and scarlet at the same time. Such a mixture indicates bad taste.

WHY, OH, why do the McBride Hall girls wear such hideous pompadours?
They would make a beauty look like a fright. They are old fashioned, too.
Keep up with the times, girls. Throw away these old rats and arrange your hair simply, becomingly and fashionably.

Boys, blacken your shoes, brush your clothes, clean your finger nails, stand up straight, hold up your heads, walk like live men and improve.

Your Niche

There's a niche for you in the world,
my boy,

A corner for you to fill,
And it waits to-day,
Along life's way,
For the boy with a frank "I will;"
So lad, be true,
The world wants you
In the corner that you may fill.

There's a niche for you in the world,
my girl,

A corner for you to fill;
For a girl that is kind,
With a pure, sweet mind,
A place that is waiting still.
So lass, be true,
The world wants you,
In the corner that you may fill.

There's a niche for you both in the world, my dears,

A corner for you to fill,
And a work to do
Which no one but you,
In God's great plain can fill;
So, dears, be true,
The world wants you,
And your place is waiting still.—Ex.

The manly boy is generally the successful boy. I believe you are just as likely to learn the lessons of manliness on these green fields as in your school rooms. Whether in the one place or the other, fit yourselves to be what we mean when we speak of a manly boy.
Get good health. Stand up for your rights. Work hard and play hard.
The boy who does not like to play is a pretty poor sort of a boy. Take an active interest in all your athletic work.
Be cheerful. The glum boy is another
