

EXCHANGES

We have placed copies of our exchanges in the Y. M. C. A. reading room and the members as well as the other boys, enjoy reading them; in this way they will learn what other school are doing.

The Orator is one of our up-to-date exchanges.

Some of our exchanges, they cannot afford to waste their time on the exchange "business." Thinking that is no use. Is this the reason why the Albany College Student has cut it out?

The New Indian has reached us with a most winning appearance. We believe the color of the ink—bright brown—somehow adds to the paper's beauty. The two pictures—the building with the pupils in the front,—U. S. Indian Boarding School, Stewart, Nevada, and the building of the State Orphans' Home, Carson City, Nevada, attracted our printers' attention.

The Weekly Willamette Collegian has reached us with a striking picture of some of their base ball players.

The Gold and Blue has a very good story—The Result of a Conference visit.

The Troubadour, Portland, Oregon, is noted for its neatness and orderliness.

Another interesting paper was added to our exchange list—The Bell, San Jose High School, California. It contains 32 pages of reading matter and no doubt will interest us very much.

Little Toto—Mamma, may I go out and look at the eclipse of the sun?

Careful Mother—Yes, dear, but be careful not to go too close.—Ex.
