

LOCALS

The tulips are looking fine.

We are having perfect weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Spink were in Portland Monday.

Examination is now over in 6th and 7th grades.

The girls use lots of lung power while playing ball.

Calvin Reaser the new plumber arrived March 27th.

Mabel McKay who has not been well is very much better.

Lizzie Beaver is Mrs. Campbell's cook and is learning very fast.

Mr. Campbell went to Portland on Saturday returning Sunday morning.

Mr. Campbell is setting out roses around his new cottage.

Miss O'Hare was in Portland Saturday selecting an Easter bonnet.

Mr. Chalcraft returned on Tuesday night from a business trip to Portland.

Mr. Cooper made a business trip for the school to Grande Ronde last week.

Miss Booth was absent a few days last week attending to private business.

Mamie and Ruff Curl went home to Baird, Cal. on account of their mother's illness.

Bessie Boles is working for Mrs. Cloutier—thus getting practical domestic science.

Mr. Chalcraft was sorry to hear of the death of a very dear friend living in Seattle.

John Benson, pupil teacher, is doing creditable work in teaching a part of the 4th grade.

Abraham Hudson and family of Grande Ronde visited Chemawa this week. Abraham is a former pupil.

Hattie Mann made 98 in her quarterly examination. She stands highest in the seventh grade.

Mrs. Campbell received a very nice program of the Carlisle commencement from Miss Noble.

Mr. Campbell was busy last week looking after the Poultry Department. We hope to have eggs for Easter.

A letter from Mr. Loring says he is in Washington D. C. taking a rest while his recent illness makes necessary.

Leon Parker and Harry Stewart of the 8th grade A and B classes, respectively stood highest in the recent examination.

Supt. Egbert and Mr. Depoe of Siletz stopped off and visited Chemawa between trains returning from Portland to Siletz the latter part of last week.

Mr. Joe Samora who has been visiting his son, Joseph, left for Alaska last week taking Joseph with him. Joseph is a nice boy and we were sorry to see him leave.

The Chemawa Y. M. C. A. delegates reported having had a good time while at the convention in Portland, Oregon. We expect to publish some of their notes next issue.

"Two hitting in," used to be the cry of the referee during the winter months, but now it is "cut on third base," or "third strike and out," among the girls of the Mc Bride Hall.

A letter from Col. Randlett and Mr. Stelzner speak of the fine weather and the benefit to San Diego from the recent rains. The Colonel and Mr. Stelzner send kindest remembrances to all Chemawa friends.