

SOCIETIES

ESTELLE REELS and ROOSEVELTS

These two societies met in Chapel as the society room can not hold the members when all are present. Stella Fiester made a very capable secretary during the absence of Sallie Boswell. The program rendered was very interesting and the debate proved to be one of the most enjoyable one of the year. A number of new faces were seen in attendance.

NONPAREIL—A business meeting was held by the Nonpareil Literary Society last Thursday evening.

After a short interesting program was rendered the election of new officers was then in order.

All the members were present and a very pleasant evening was spent.

The following officers were elected:

|                        |                  |
|------------------------|------------------|
| President .....        | Bessie Chiloquin |
| Vice President .....   | Lena Kirk        |
| Secretary .....        | Julia Selatsie   |
| Treasurer .....        | Louisa Murray    |
| Sergeant-at-arms ..... | Ella Brewer      |
| Assat. Sergeant .....  | Myrtle Johnsen   |

EXCELSIOR—The Excelsior Literary Society held an interesting meeting in their usual place. As there being no unfinished business, we proceeded with the following program: Vocal solo, Martin Sampson; trumpet solo, Arthur Tyler; story, Walter Parrish.

The question for the evening was, Resolved: That, California is a greater state than Washington. Robert Cameron, Leon Parker and John Peazzoni were for the Affirmative, and Martin Sampson, Webster Hudson and Levi Sortor upheld the Negative side. All the speakers were for their own state. The judges decided in favor of the negative side; and so it was proved that Washington is a greater state than California.

The subject was vigorously discussed. Robert Cameron distinguished himself as the leading speaker for the affirmative, while Levi Sortor upheld the negative.

As the program was all given, the meeting was devoted to business, and everything was straightened. The program for next meeting being read, and then we adjourned.

The Hiawatha Club held their regular meeting Thursday evening after calling the roll the election of new officers was then in order. Thomas McCully was chosen President; Alfred Lane, Vice President; Albert Payne, Secretary; Charles Payne, editor. After the election was concluded the house then proceeded with their program and business of several different natures was transacted. The Club sent challenges to both the Nonpareil and Excelsior Literary Societies for an oratorical contest to take place at a time to be arranged by the respective committees of each Society after some lively discussion of different subject the house adjourned.

---

CRONISE STUDIO

The best studio in the city of Salem to have your photographs taken is the Cronise Studio. Prices are reasonable and the work is always executed in the latest styles. This studio has won for itself a reputation among its many patrons in and around Salem, and if the students of the United States Training School desire a fine photograph they should call at this excellent art gallery.