

EXCHANGES

In the March issue of El Gabilan we learned that a new staff has taken charge for the rest of the term. We hope that the high degree of excellence of this paper will continue. In this issue the exchange column is unusually good.

The commencement number of the Normal Record, has been received. It is a very interesting issue and makes us wank of the day when we will publish the CHEMAWA AMERICAN in honor of our closing exercises.

Some excellent cuts appear in the arena, Carlisle, Pa. The gymnasium in which the commencement exercises of 1906 are to be held presents an imposing structure.

We acknowledge with thanks the following papers: The Agriculturists, Minneapolis, Minn.; The Progress, Regina, Sask.; The Tomahawk, White Earth, Minn.; The Indian Leader, Lawrence, Kan.; The Washingtonian, Vancouver, Wash.; The Orator, Spokane, Wash.; The Ogla-la Light, Pine Ridge, S.D.
