

Who are you for? Germany or America?

Mr. Herbert J. Campbell is a Chemawa visitor.

The Debate! That's the great question nowadays.

We are practicing songs for Easter Sunday and for Arbor Day.

We understand that Martin Sampson is studying some new songs.

Mrs. Reaser, wife of the plumber arrived at Chemawa Friday morning.

We have good material in McBride Hall for a Mandolin Club. Can we not organize one?

James Smith who is attending the Hampton school says he would be glad to see and feel some good Oregon rain.

Courage.

Bravery helps to make a nation safe. A nation of cowards cannot be a strong nation. Men and women who dare fling themselves against great odds for the sake of their conviction; who do not shrink from crying out against any evil that may menace the purity of the government; who will, if need be, sever all political, social and financial ties for love of country—these are the heroes to whom a nation resorts in her hour of need.—Ex.

TROVER CRONISE STUDIO

The best studio in the city of Salem to have your photographs taken is the Trover Cronise Studio. Prices are reasonable and the work is always executed in the latest styles. This studio has won for itself a reputation among its many patrons in and around Salem, and if the students of the United States Training School desire a fine photograph they should call at this excellent art gallery, over Barnes Cash Store.

SEWING ROOM ITEMS.

Nellie Sloan cut out eight gingham dresses Tuesday morning.

We were glad to welcome Orson Ball in the sewing room Tuesday evening.

Lizzie Galbreath is making a very pretty spring dress for her sister Annie.

Rosa Winslow has just finished a pretty dress for herself which she will wear Easter.

The sewing room girls are wondering who will be the lucky one to receive the beautiful sofa cushion Miss O'Hero is making.

The sewing room girls are turning out excellent work every week. They expect to finish the McBride Hall girls gingham dresses this month.

Jessie LaBreche is making a very beautiful dress for herself. By Easter our girls will look so fine, we won't know them in their new spring gowns.

It is a pleasure to pay a visit to the sewing room to see so many bright smiling faces, to see so many at work as busy as bees. But as busy as they are they are always glad to turn their attention to their callers, and never get tired of telling how this and that is done.

For Representative

Col. E. Hofer, of the Salem Daily Capital Journal, who has always been a friend of the Chemawa School, is a candidate for Representative. The boys and girls of this institution wish him success.
